Robert Venturi Excerpts From Complexity And Contradiction:

Complexity and Contradiction in Architecture Robert Venturi, 1977 Foreword by Arthur Drexler Introduction by Vincent Scully Introducing Architectural Theory Korydon Smith, Miguel Guitart, 2013-05-20 This is the most accessible architectural theory book that exists Korydon Smith presents each common architectural subject such as tectonics use and site as though it were a conversation across history between theorists by providing you with the original text a reflective text and a philosophical text He also introduces each chapter by highlighting key ideas and asking you a set of reflective questions so that you can hone your own theory which is essential to both your success in the studio and your adaptability in the profession These primary source texts which are central to your understanding of the discipline were written by such architects as Le Corbusier Robert Venturi and Adrian Forty The appendices also have guides to aid your reading comprehension to help you write descriptively analytically and disputationally and to show you citation styles and how to do library based research More than any other architectural theory book about the great thinkers Introducing Architectural Theory teaches you to think as well Public and Private in Thought and Practice Jeff Weintraub, Krishan Kumar, 1997-03-15 These essays by widely respected scholars in fields ranging from social and political theory to historical sociology and cultural studies illuminate the significance of the public private distinction for an increasingly wide range of debates Commenting on controversies surrounding such issues as abortion rights identity politics and the requirements of democratization many of these essays clarify crucial processes that have shaped the culture and institutions of modern societies In contexts ranging from friendship the family and personal life to nationalism democratic citizenship the role of women in social and political life and the contrasts between western and post Communist societies this book brings out the ways the various uses of the public private distinction are simultaneously distinct and interconnected Public and Private in Thought and Practice will be of interest to students and scholars in disciplines including politics law philosophy history sociology and women s studies Contributors include Jeff Weintraub Allan Silver Craig Calhoun Daniela Gobetti Jean L Cohen Jean Bethke Elshtain Alan Wolfe Krishan Kumar David Brain Karen Hansen Marc Garcelon and Oleg Kharkhordin The Architecture Reader Krista Sykes, 2007 The Architecture Reader brings together for the first time texts written by architects of international esteem Harvard Design Magazine , 2006 Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians, 1979 Includes special issues The Pace of Modernity O. Bradley Bassler, 2012 Wittgenstein said that philosophers should greet each other not by saying Hello but rather Take your time But what is time Time is money but this points to an even better answer to this basic question for our modern epoch time is acceleration In a cultural system which stresses economic efficiency the quicker route is always the more prized if not always the better one Wittgenstein s dictum thus constitutes an act of rebellion against the dominant vector of our culture but as such it threatens to become quickly anti modern We need an approach to reading our information rich culture which is not reactionary but rather meets its accelerated condition In this book O Bradley Bassler develops a toolkit for acute reading of our modern pace not through withdrawal but rather through active engagement with a broad range of disciplines The main characters in this drama comprise a cast of master readers Hannah Arendt Jean Starobinski Harold Bloom Angus Fletcher Hans Blumenberg and John Ashbery with secondary figures drawn from the readers and critics whom this central group suggests We must develop a vocabulary of pacing reflecting our modern distance from classical sources and the concomitant acceleration of our contemporary condition Only in this way can we begin to situate the phenomenon of modernity within the larger scales of human culture and history

Richard Neutra and the Search for Modern Architecture Thomas S. Hines,2005 The story of Richard Neutra s life is in many ways the story of modern architecture since Neutra experienced in his own lifetime the buoyant struggles of the movement s early years and the heady successes of its mid century ascendancy By interweaving Neutra s life with the history of modernism this definitive study depicts architecture s struggle to find new meaning in the twentieth century Born in Vienna in 1892 Neutra moved to the United States in 1923 and quickly became in the words of the 1932 Museum of the Modern Art catalogue the leading modern architect of the West Coast second only to Frank Lloyd Wright in international stature His work was distinguished by the way it embraced nature felicitously adapting the standard modernist elements ribbon windows flat roofs built in furniture glass walls to the California environment The lightness and skeletal strength in his buildings reified the essence of the International Style Neutra s favorite building materials were steel stucco concrete wood and glass and his basic structure was the simple timeless post and beam with cantilevered roof slabs extending into space As a follower of Wright and of the new architecture of Europe Neutra bridged perhaps better than any other modernist the frequently polarized worlds of Taliesin and the Bauhaus A lifelong student of the psychological physiological and ecological dimensions of architecture Neutra s credo became the title of his most influential book Survival Through Design Thomas Hines analyzes not only Neutra s contributions to modernism but also the architect s relationships with his mentors and contemporaries including Otto Wagner Adolf Loos Erich Mendelsohn Walter Gropius Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Rudolph Schindler and Wright He also explores Neutra s interaction with clients among them Philip and Leah Lovell who commissioned Neutra s famous steel framed Health House and film director Josef von Sternberg for whom Neutra built a modern aluminum moat enclosed villa later acquired by novelist Ayn Rand It was a measure of Neutra s fame that

Edgar Kaufmann who had commissioned Wright's Fallingwater house of 1936 chose Neutra ten years later to design his desert house in Palm Springs Jacket New American Furniture Edward S. Cooke, 1989 Artwork by Edward Cooke Jr

Structures of Our Time Roger Shepherd, 2002 From Fifth Avenue shaping Rockefeller Center the first AIA honoree in 1969 to Richard Meier's Darien Connecticut Smith House created in 1965 to 1967 and winner of the year 2000 prize this book investigates the structures that mark and define our era BOOK JACKET Encyclopedia of World Biography, 1987 6 volume supplement numbered 13 18 to McGraw Hill encyclopedia of world biography published in 1973 by McGraw Hill covering people of the 20th century and including a study guide and index vol 16 Alfred Roth, Architect of Continuity Alfred Roth, 1985 Telling the Stories of America Associazione italiana di studi nord-americani. Convegno di studio, 2000 Radical Games Lara Schrijver, 2009 Comparing a number of radical movements in architecture in the 1960s this book traces a moment in the history of architecture when revolutionary ideals were paramount and dreams became drawings The ensuing disillusionment as well as a contemporary revival of this period are enclosed within their very premises This book explores three radical critiques of modernist architecture throughout the work of the Situationist International Venturi and Scott Brown and Archigram Situated on the cusp of a new time of postmodernity and global capitalism these critical reactions to their forebears demonstrate a perceptively critical understanding of modernism and a prescience towards contemporary conditions At the same time however their dreams were so entwined with the modern project that they have created an untenable position for the contemporary architecture debate Book jacket Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice Friedman, 1998-03 Explores the challenges that unconditional attitudes and ways of life have presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves Photos Perspecta, 1992
