Subject: Employment Termination

Dear Mr. / Mrs. [First/Last Name of the Employee],

This email is to inform you that as of [mention Date], the contract of your employment with [mention Company Name] will come to an end and will be terminated.

On behalf of the management of [mention Company Name], I truly admire your efforts and contributions to the organization in your capacity as the [mention Employee's Job Title/Position]. It was a great pleasure to have the services of a qualified professional such as yourself but unfortunately, due to [briefly mention Reason or Reasons], we have decided not to renew the employment contract further.

It is our request to you to return all the belongings of the company in your possession. Also, don't forget to send us any pending invoices or bills so that we can clear the outstanding dues on time. Please make sure that all these settlements must be made before the contract ends officially.

Accounting and Regulation Roberto Di Pietra, Stuart McLeay, Joshua Ronen, 2013-11-05 Since 1998 the world's leading experts on accounting and regulation have convened in a series of workshops to explore and analyze emerging issues in the field. They have covered a wide array of topics including corporate governance, auditing, financial disclosure, international standards, boards, and the dynamics of markets and institutions. Most recently, they have focused on the role that accounting practices and policies may have played in the global financial crisis of 2008. In this volume, the editors showcase contributions from the workshops that represent the full spectrum of issues and perspectives relating to accounting and regulation. Each paper incorporates the most current examples and references to reflect the latest insights with an emphasis on exploring future implications for theory and research practice and policymaking.

Corporate Governance Matters David Larcker, Brian Tayan, 2025-10-14 The Definitive Guide to High Performance Corporate Governance. Fully updated to reflect the latest research trends and regulations. Corporate Governance Matters Fourth Edition is the definitive resource for anyone seeking to improve corporate governance practices from directors and institutional investors to policymakers and researchers. This edition offers comprehensive, objective insights grounded in rigorous analysis and real-world examples covering new discussions on ESG ratings, stakeholder interests, CEO behavior, and artificial intelligence. David Larcker and Brian Tayan examine today's most pressing governance challenges, including board effectiveness, shareholder activism, organizational risk, and systemic breakdowns. Their empirical, non-ideological approach helps readers understand the impact of governance structures and processes on organizational performance, equipping them to make informed decisions in an increasingly complex environment. Extensively revised coverage of International corporate governance, Compensation, equity ownership, incentives, and the labor market for CEOs. Optimal board structure, tradeoffs, and consequences. Governance, organizational strategy, business models, and risk management. Succession planning. Alternative corporate governance structures, including family-controlled businesses, nonprofits, private equity, and venture capital. Financial reporting and external audit. The market for corporate control. Roles of institutional and activist shareholders. Governance ratings and more. Features Objectively and fully addresses every component of governance with no axe to grind. Explains what's known and what isn't, helping leaders make better choices in the face of uncertainty. Brings together new academic research, updated examples, and statistics, and a complete decision-making framework. Includes expanded discussions of environmental and social issues in governance, board effectiveness, CEO succession, and compensation, cyber risk, and shareholder activism.
