Adventures for Readers Fannie Safier,Harcourt Brace Jovanovich,1989 Animals in Narrative Film and Television Karin Beeler,Stan Beeler,2022-09-14 This book explores fictional representations and narrative functions of animal characters in animated and live action film and television examining the ways in which these representations intersect with a variety of social issues Contributors cover a range of animal characters from heroes to villains across a variety of screen genres and formats including anime comedy romance horror fantasy and science fiction Aesthetic features of these works along with the increased latitude that fictionalized narratives and alternative worlds provide allow existing social issues to be brought to the forefront in order to effect change in our societies By incorporating animal figures into media these screen narratives have gained the ability to critique actions carried out by human beings and explore dimensions of both the human animal connection and the intersectionality of race culture class gender and ability ultimately teaching viewers how to become more human in our interactions with the world around us Scholars of film studies media studies and animal studies will find this book of particular interest Musical Agency and the Social Listener Cora S. Palfy,2021-10-21 Music as a narrative drama is an intriguing idea which has captured explicit music theoretical attention since the nineteenth century Investigations into narrative characters or personae has evolved into a sub field musical agency In this book Palfy contends that music has the potential to engage us in social processes and that those processes can be experienced as a social interaction with a musical agent She explores the overlap between the psychological processes in which we participate in order to understand and engage with people and those we engage in when we listen to music Thinking of musical agency as a form of social process is quite different from existing theoretical frameworks for agency It implies that we come to musical analysis by way of intuition that our ideas are already partially formed based on our experience of the piece and what it makes us feel or how it makes us sense it as any other when we choose to analyze and interpret it Palfy s focus on social processes is a very effective way to pinpoint when and why it is that our attention is captured and engaged by musical agents
