The Introvert's Guide to Entrepreneurship Nate Nicholson, 2015-01-31 How an Introverted Entrepreneur Accidentally Discovered the Critical Effect of His Personality on His Business If you are an introvert wishing to start a business, I can't think of a worse way to mess it up than to completely disregard the effect of your personality on its success. In fact, that's exactly how I messed up my business. I launched a venture suited for an extrovert, not even once asking myself whether I could handle it with my deeply introverted nature. Would you like to avoid a major screw-up and start a business that fits your personality? Don't reply, I know your answer. I wrote this book to help you avoid the mistakes I made and teach you the proper way to start a business as an introvert I will share with you the lessons and observations every introverted businessperson should consider before pursuing a new venture. If you skip this step, chances are that your business will fail much sooner than you think and the only person at fault would be you. I was there and let me tell you it ain't pretty. Let me help you learn how to make the most out of your strengths to start a successful introvert friendly business. Here are just some of the things you will learn from the book:

- your 5 main strengths to help you become an entrepreneur. Just one of these strengths is more potent than any other business skill yet you're probably not aware of it.
- Chapter 1: your 5 most harmful weaknesses that can affect your business. Learn which weaknesses can ruin your business endeavors and how to prevent it from happening. Even with the most genius business idea and perfect execution, you can fail when exhibiting one of these weaknesses.
- Chapter 2: how to lead your company as an introvert. Hint: many successful entrepreneurs, including extroverts, do something entirely different than most people. And it's introvert friendly too.
- Chapter 3: 5 key attributes of a good business partner for an introvert. If you don't want to go it alone, learn how to choose the right partner. Just one of these traits can either make or break your partnership.
- Chapter 4: how to promote yourself and network as an introvert. Most introverts possess a powerful skill that can help them promote their business without networking the old school extrovert friendly way.
- Chapter 5: 5 attributes of introvert friendly businesses. Before you launch a new venture, ask yourself how well it fits your personality. Don't leave this question for later unless you want to find yourself trapped in a business that sucks your soul.
- Chapter 6: 9 introvert friendly business models to consider. Learn what types of ventures fit the introverted personality best and increase your chances of success.
- Chapter 6: 5 introvert friendly ways to come up with business ideas. If you're yet to come up with a business idea, you'll learn how to research potential opportunities and find out if they have legs. The process of validating a business before you start it can save you thousands of dollars and hundreds of hours.
- Chapter 7: If you're ready to learn how to become a successful introverted entrepreneur, scroll up and click the buy button. Avoid my mistakes and start a business that fits your personality from the get go.

P.S. As a thank you gift for buying my book, you'll receive a completely free ebook I used to sell for 2.99: 15 Steps to Better Time Management and Higher Effectiveness. It will teach you how to become a more effective entrepreneur who achieves more while doing less.

Being an introvert does not mean one is shy, socially awkward, or lacking in confidence. Being an introvert simply means you recharge from solitude rather than social situations. Often it is a sign of intelligence. Answer these quick questions to see if you are an introvert:

- Do you enjoy small talk? Most introverts find small talk uncomfortable.
- Do you often feel alone in a crowd? Many introverts feel alone even when they are among a group of friends.
- Are you easily distracted? Introverts tend to be easily distracted in environments of excess stimulation.
- Are you in a relationship with or find yourself surrounding yourself with extroverts? This is a common characteristic of the introvert.
- Opposites attract. Does downtime make you feel more productive? Introverts need time alone to process information and recharge.
- Is it easier for you to speak in front of large crowds than to speak to small groups of people?

or individuals Most introverts are comfortable with public speaking but mingling with the crowd afterward and making small talk is often tedious to them Do you start to shut down after you have been out and about for too long Being out in public causes the introvert to expend a lot of energy After a while they start to shut down and need solitude Do you have a constant inner dialogue Introverts tend to subconsciously and consciously think continually Introverts think first and talk later Do you see the big picture Introverts have excellent observational skills and tend to look at the big picture and have a mind for more abstract concepts These are a few of the many characteristics that introverts share If you think you may be an introvert and are seeking greater financial success read this book It is the ultimate guide book for the introvert with an entrepreneurial spirit It is filled with excellent advice relevant examples checklists and self analysis tools to help today s introvert crack the code to wealth Reading this book cover to cover will set you upon the path to becoming a lone wolf tycoon Keep this book handy as you climb the corporate ladder of success It will be a handy guide book that you will refer to over and over again
