The Muslim Brotherhood Circumstances Surrounding its Establishment Trends Research & Advisory, 2020-01-01 The Muslim Brotherhood is a phenomenon worthy of investigation given its geographical reach and the depth of its social and political influence not only in the Arab and Muslim regions but throughout the whole world An analytical view of the historical circumstances surrounding the Group's emergence in Egypt is key to understanding the factors that have shaped its followers its ideological vision and its tools of change An examination of the social economic and cultural environment which witnessed the inception of the Muslim Brotherhood is of special importance as it allows us to envision the overall conditions that prevailed in Egypt at the time of the Group's founding Such a study is an attempt not only to understand the events and developments that accompanied the emergence of the Muslim Brotherhood but to identify the ways in which these developments have colored events of the recent past The study highlights the intellectual origins of the Muslim Brotherhood as embodied in Sunni Orthodoxy the ideology of the Khawarij and pioneers of the Arab Islamic Renaissance Nahda such as Jamal al Din al Afghani Muhammad Abduh Muhammad Rashid Rida and Abul A la Maududi whose thought deeply impacted the formulation of the Brotherhood's ideas The study also addresses the role played by figures such as Hasan al Banna and Sayyid Qutb who entrenched violence within the Group's rhetoric worldview and actions No less importantly the study addresses the theoretical foundations of the Brotherhood's thought and approach which are highly generalized and ambiguous despite the Brotherhood's claim that they are authentic and deeply rooted in the Islamic legal and juristic tradition

Torah Through a Muslim's View

Wisnu Tanggap Prabowo, This book critically examines what is regarded as the Torah by the People of the Book using the Qur'an as a benchmark and standard of comparison. It explores the parallels, differences, and elements absent in both scriptures. The book reveals that not all content within the Torah is invalid; though a significant portion has undergone alteration and distortion (tahrif and tabdil). Such an intertextual study does not serve as a gateway to legitimizing religious pluralism; on the contrary, it reaffirms the concept of wihdah ad din, the unity of religion as indicated in the Qur'an and the Sunnah. Prof. Dr. H. Muhammad Galib Mattola, MA, lecturer at UIN Alauddin Makassar and a member of the Indonesian Ulema Council MUI South Sulawesi. This book discusses the importance of understanding the Torah through the lens of the Qur'an and the Hadith of the Prophet, aiming to achieve a correct understanding of the previous scriptures. Islam views religion as one of the guidances of Allah to humanity through His messengers, with Muhammad as the seal of the prophets. Therefore, understanding the previous scriptures is crucial in the context of Islam to comprehend the continuity of divine revelation and to affirm the truth of faith. Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay-Indonesian World Azhar Ibrahim, 2022-11-24. While many books have probed the role of Islam in political and social change in Southeast Asia over the past three decades, few have focused on the power of the religious discourse itself in shaping this transformation. Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay-Indonesian World captures the interplay between religion and social thought in comparative case studies from Malaysia, Indonesia, and Singapore. Drawing on a critical sociology of knowledge and a profound understanding of historical contexts, the central focus is on Muslim intellectuals who have grappled with the impact of modernity in these societies, between those seeking to reform Islam's role and those who take a hardline defensive stance. The discussion deals successively with the role of religious traditionalism, the upsurge of dakwah revivalism, and the public sphere attitudes towards democracy and pluralism, and finally the ideas advanced by liberal Islam and its opponents. Above all, Azhar Ibrahim offers the reader a creative way of understanding the modern Islamic discourse and its relationship to the remaking of society at large. Azhar Ibrahim's book cuts through the noise of much discourse on Islam and puts perspective to a vast amount of materials, effectively constructing their actual social and historical meaning. It should be read by all those seeking an in-depth understanding of contemporary Southeast Asia, even beyond the particular issues of Islam and Muslims. Shahrudin Maaruf, Academy of Malay Studies, University of Malaya. This book is a must-read for all those interested in a critical evaluation of the force and implications of religious traditionalism, conservatism, and revivalism on the development of plural and democratic Muslim societies in Southeast Asia and the challenges they pose to critical voices struggling for the relevance of ethical and humanist traditions of Islam.
