Developing, Delivering, and Sustaining School Counseling Practices Through a Culturally Affirming Lens

Brant-Rajahn, Sarah N., Gibson, Eva M., Cook Sandifer, Mariama, 2022-05-06 Systemic oppression continues to disenfranchise students at the intersections of race ethnicity gender identity sexual orientation immigrant status religion ableism and economic status. Because of this school counselors are called to function as advocates and change agents but often find themselves underprepared to address these oppressive systems in schools. It is vital that school counselors are provided resources that enable them to increase their preparedness and allow them to address oppressive practices within schools as well as work with diverse populations using culturally affirming and antiracist practices. Developing Delivering and Sustaining School Counseling Practices Through a Culturally Affirming Lens informs culturally affirming and antiracist professional practice and advocacy work by school counselors. It serves as a learning tool that better prepares school counselors to address the needs of marginalized students and work as effective change agents to disrupt systemic oppression in school settings. Covering topics such as professional identity racial trauma and social justice this book serves as a dynamic resource for school counselor educators school counselors in training school counselors directors supervisors district leaders and administration researchers and academicians as they implement antiracist social justice and culturally affirming practices in school settings and academia.

, Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Margie Mayfield, 2000-11 For Introduction to Early Childhood Education or Foundations of Early Childhood courses taught at the university level Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Context Dimensions and Issues is an exciting new text that offers a comprehensive Canadian overview of early childhood education ECE and care past and present. The text has three main goals to examine ECE in the context of today's cultures communities and families to recognize the rich variety and scope of ECE and care in Canada and to invite readers to reflect on issues in ECE for today and in the future. Topics covered in the book include multiculturalism and special needs children and detailed descriptions of Canadian programs are also included. The result is an informative reader friendly text that is indispensable for both students and teachers. Lost Kids Mona Gleason, Tamara Myers, Leslie Paris, Veronica Strong-Boag, 2010-07-01 Children and youth occupy important social and political roles even as they sleep in cribs or hang out on street corners. Conceptualized as either harbingers or saboteurs of a bright secure tomorrow young people have motivated many adult driven plans to improve their communities future But have all children benefited from these programs and initiatives Lost Kids explores the under representation demonization and inadequate care of vulnerable children and connects them to three key determining factors the role of the state the shifting context of the family and the evolution of child protection and juvenile justice By illuminating the diversity of disadvantaged childhoods this multifaceted collection rejects the essentialism of the so called priceless child or hopeless youth Lost Kids sheds new light on the experiences of vulnerable children in Canada and the United States
