International Organizations and Global Development Nicholas Ferns, Angela Villani, 2024-05-20 The third issue of the Yearbook on the History of Global Development aims at collecting contributions about the role of international organizations in shaping the global system of development throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries International organizations both intergovernmental and NGOs have played a crucial role shaping the global system of development by setting agendas mobilizing people and framing ideas and practices regarding development on local national regional and global scales

Law and Practice of the United Nations Simon Chesterman, Ian Johnstone, David Malone, 2016 This book combines primary materials with expert commentary demonstrating the interaction between law and practice in the UN organisation as well as the possibilities and limitations of multilateral institutions in general Each chapter begins with a short introductory essay by the authors that describes how the documents that follow illustrate a set of legal institutional and political issues relevant to the practice of diplomacy and the development of public international law through the United Nations This second edition updates the materials in the first edition and introduces new features that reflect a changing global landscape

Handbook of Social Policy and Development James Midgley, Rebecca Surender, Laura Alfes, 2019 The Handbook of Social Policy and Development makes a groundbreaking coherent case for enhancing collaboration between social policy and development. With wide ranging chapters it discusses a myriad of ways in which this can be done exploring both academic and practical activities. As the conventional distinction between developed and developing countries becomes increasingly blurred this Handbook explores how collaboration between social policy and development is needed to meet global social needs.

Re-Inventing Africa's Development Jong-Dae Park, 2018-12-31 This open access book analyses the development problems of sub Sahara Africa SSA from the eyes of a Korean diplomat with knowledge of the economic growth Korea has experienced in recent decades. The author argues that Africa's development challenges are not due to a lack of resources but a lack of management presenting an alternative to the traditional view that Africa's problems are caused by a lack of leadership. In exploring an approach based on mind set and nation building rather than unity which tends to promote individual or party interests rather than the broader country or national interests the author suggests new solutions for SSA's economic growth inspired by Korea's successful economic growth model much of which is focused on industrialisation. This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers NGOs and governmental bodies in economics development and politics studying Africa's economic development and Korea's economic growth model.
