TAKING NOTES

Use the graphic organizer online to take notes on the history and culture of Canada.

History and Culture

If YOU lived there...

You own a general store in Calgary, Alberta, in the early 1880s. Your town is a center for agriculture and ranching on the prairies around you. Still, it sometimes feels very isolated. You miss your family in Ontario. Now the news comes that the Canadian Pacific Railway will soon reach Calgary. It will connect the town with all of central and eastern Canada.

How will the railroad change your life?

BUILDING BACKGROUND Canada is a close neighbor with the United States. The two countries are linked by a common language and a history of British colonial rule. But the two countries developed in different ways. Canada's diverse population developed its own culture and way of life.

History

As the ice sheets of the ice ages melted, people moved into all areas of what is now Canada. As they did elsewhere in the Americas, these ancient settlers adapted to the physical environment.

Canada's History

New France

Known as the Father of New France, explorer Samuel de Champlain established Quebec in 1608.

Native Canadians

Thousands of years ago, ancestors of Native Canadians and the Inuit settled Canada.
