The Masculine Century Michael Antony,2008-05-28 Now that the Twentieth Century is behind us what made it what it was 200 million human beings killed by war totalitarianism and extermination programs What made the twentieth century the most murderous age in human history as well as the age that made the greatest advances ever in science and technology while art and serious music declined into abstraction non communication and grotesque hoaxes blank canvases old urinals cans of excrement and concertos consisting of four minutes of silence This book argues that the century was marked by an over masculinization of the Western mind leading to autism and psychopathic aggression and the eclipse of the feminine expressive emotional empathetic side of human nature Hence the unprecedented culture of total war and genocide and the totalitarian projects to raze the human past and start again which Modernism carried out in the arts Hence also the masculinization of sexual behavior as romance gave way to pornography and marriage to promiscuity the adoption by women of a male work role the decline of motherhood and family and the collapse of Western birthrates This is all traced back to the rise of two aggressive ultra masculine ideologies in the nineteenth century Darwinism and Marxism which gave birth to Fascism and Feminism These ideologies put violence conflict and aggression at the heart of life and changed human mentalities This book examines these developments through the literature and art of the past hundred and fifty years and discusses their implications for the future of Western Civilization
