Imaging The Divine Jesus And Christ Figures In Film:

Imaging the Divine Lloyd Baugh, 1997-05 Baugh traces the development of the Jesus film and through critical film and theological analysis show us the limitations of this genre Baugh analyzes several important and often prize winning films showing how each film maker has created a valid and often complex and challenging metaphor of the Christ event He questions many of the traditional approaches to religious film and offers a new approach and new criteria for the appreciation and judgment of these films Judas Kim Paffenroth, 2001-01-01 Judas Images of the Lost Disciple traces the development of the stories about the most famous traitor in the history of Western Civilization Its purpose is not to find the Judas of history but rather to provide readers with a map that shows the similarities and connections between generations of Judas s story Judas has been portrayed as an effete intellectual a jealous lover a greedy scoundrel a misguided patriot a doomed hero a man destroyed by despair or God s special misunderstood messenger and agent Judas means as many different things to us as does Jesus or God The enigma of Judas s story in the Gospels left later literature and legend with a creative challenge they richly answered and which is presented here to write the real story of the worst villain of all time

100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15 Spiritual themes are common in movies The unconventional savior The hero s journey The redemption tale The balance of creation Journalist John A Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more See them all read them all before you die Christian Thought in the Twenty-First Century Douglas H. Shantz, Tinu Ruparell, 2012-04-01 In this volume some of the outstanding Christian scholars of our day reflect on how their minds have changed how their academic fields have changed over the course of their careers and the pressing issues that Christian scholars will need to address in the twenty first century This volume offers an accessible portrait of key trends in the world of Christian scholarship today Christian Thought in the Twenty First Century features scholars from Great Britain Canada the United States and Switzerland The contributors represent a wide variety of academic backgrounds from biblical studies to theology to religious studies to history English literature philosophy law and ethics This book offers a personal glimpse of Christian scholars in a self reflective mode capturing their honest reflections on the changing state of the academy and on changes in their own minds and outlooks The breadth and depth of insight afforded by these contributions provide rich soil for a reader s own reflections and an agenda that will occupy Christian thinkers well into the twenty first century The Religious Film Pamela Grace, 2009-04-27 From The Gospel According to Matthew to Jesus Christ Superstar from The Passion of Joan of Arc to The Last Temptation of Christ and Jesus of Montreal The Religious Film captures the glory gore and centrality of this important genre A short accessible introduction to religious film exploring the genre as spectacle as musical and as controversy Examines the historical cultural and critical background for religious films from the silent era through to the present day Introduces the complexities and characteristics of this iconic genre of film including common sounds and images and the values that most traditional films of this kind uphold Alien Sex Gerard Loughlin, 2008-04-15 Gerard Loughlin is one of the leading theologians working at the interface between religion and contemporary culture In this exceptional work he uses cinema and the films it shows to think about the church and the visions of desire it displays Discusses various films including the Alien quartet Christopher Nolan's Memento Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey and A Clockwork Orange Nicolas Roeg's The Man Who Fell to Earth and Derek Jarman's The Garden Draws on a wide range of authors both ancient and modern religious and secular from Plato to Levinas from Karl Barth and Hans Urs von Balthasar to Andr Bazin and Leo Bersani Uses cinema to think about the church as an ecclesiacinema and films to think about sexual desire as erotic dispossession as a way into the life of God Written from a radically orthodox Christian perspective at once both Catholic and critical Insights from Filmmaking for Analyzing Biblical Narrative Gary Yamasaki, 2016-10-01 In this volume Gary Yamasaki develops an innovative approach to biblical narrative exploring the way stories are treated in filmmaking and using that as a model for analyzing biblical stories In our culture the voluminous exposure we have to movies has resulted in our being conditioned to experience cinematic stories in a particular manner for example seeing them as events rather than objects and the story worlds of movies as distinct from the real world However biblical stories are not typically viewed through this cinematic story lens making our analysis of biblical narrative out of step with what has become our natural mode of experiencing stories This book demonstrates how fresh interpretive insights emerge when we read biblical stories like we watch movies Each volume in the new Insights series discusses discoveries and insights gained into biblical texts from a particular approach or perspective in current scholarship Accessible and appealing to today's students each Insight volume will discuss 1 how this method approach or strategy was first developed and how its application has changed over time 2 what current questions arise from its use 3 what enduring insights it has produced and 4 what questions remain for future scholarship T&T Clark Companion to the Bible and Film Richard Walsh, 2018-06-28 The first decades of the twenty first century saw a resurgence of the biblical epic film such as Noah and Exodus Gods and Kings which was in turn accompanied by a growth of biblical film criticism This companion surveys that field of study by framing it in light of significant and recent biblical films as well as the voices of key biblical film critics Non Hollywood and seemingly non biblical films also come under investigation The contributors concentrate on three points context focusing on the Bible in specific film genres and cultural situations theory applying theory from both religion and film studies with an eye to their possible intersections and recent and significant texts reflecting on which texts and themes have been most important in biblical film and which are currently at the fore Exploring cinema across the globe and accompanied by extended introductory essays for each of the three sections this companion is an important resource for scholars in both film and biblical reception Gospel Images in Fiction and Film Larry Joseph Kreitzer, 2002 The connections between New Testament texts classic works of literature and cinematic interpretations of those works are explored in this book which
