Discussion Notes on Milan Kundera's Immortality Brian Elkner, 1994 Milan Kundera's Fiction Karen von Kunes, 2019-05-20 In Milan Kundera's Fiction A Critical Approach to Existential Betrayals Karen von Kunes traces Kundera's literary aspirations to a single episode in Czechoslovakia in the Stalinist era This moment attracted international attention when a 1950 police report was released in 2008 Reporters rushed to judgment accusing Kundera of denouncing Miroslav Dvorček to the police resulting in Dvorček's immediate arrest and sentencing to hard labor von Kunes debunks this shocking charge in a systematic way and argues that Kundera reported a suitcase not a man She ties Kundera's dominant themes of sex betrayal and political denouncement to the suitcase a fatal instrument that can lead to paradoxes and unforeseen and catastrophic coincidences for his characters Finding Meaning in Life, at Midlife and Beyond David Guttman, 2008-09-30 Having been mentored by Viktor E Frankl the founder of logotherapy Emeritus Professor David Guttman authored this book so general readers may understand this approach to finding meaning in life at the point when most of us begin deeply wondering over that question at midlife and beyond Especially in this day and age of multiple demands on our time and seemingly non stop obligations we too often find that it is only when the dust settles after a work day or work week or even after retirement when we begin to wonder What is the meaning of life The purpose This book is a new millennium venture into those questions and their answers using logotherapy written by a sage understudy who recalls

Frankl with his logotherapy as the epitome of his theory even at 80 years old wise and witty exuding an energy enthusiasm and youthful spirit that belied his years by decades Aging does not diminish our power our energy and our quest for life but reshapes it with new understandings goals and needs But says Guttman we live in a technical and machine based world now in which there is a danger of losing our souls Here readers find a new creative perspective on aging and a fresh spiritual outlook This book will be of interest not only to general readers especially those at midlife and beyond but also to their families friends and students or professionals in the helping professions This unique work provides knowledge to find meaning in life derived from the fields of philosophy psychology religion and gerontology with case illustrations and vignettes to give readers both intellectual pleasure and practical guidance A Different Plain Ladette Randolph, 2004-01-01

O Pioneers was oh so long ago and yet Willa Cather's masterpiece has proven to be an enduring template for readers notions of Nebraska writing The short stories collected here so richly various in style theme and subject matter should put an end to any such plain thinking about writing from this anything but plain state Nebraska writers all the authors explore the Midwest a vastness of small towns corn cattle football and family businesses They also venture far afield to desolate western lives crowded urban relationships poignant couplings comic families and the worldly idiosyncrasies of characters everywhere Whether about aging or coming of age leave taking or coming home falling apart or finding love these stories represent contemporary fiction at its best from the high style of Richard Dooling's Immortal Man to Kent Haruf's soft spoken Dancing from Ron Hansen's My Communist to Jonis Agee's earthy offbeat Binding the Devil Original spirited and surprising these contemporary writings depict a modern world on the move and extend the tradition of great fiction from Nebraska into the twenty first century The Bad Child Maria Janion, 2025-09-09

Collected writings from a visionary thinker about the perilous edge between patriotism and fascism How do nationalism and patriotism shape our understanding of identity and when do they drift into dangerous territory Marta Figlerowicz gathers a selection of writings from Maria Janion one of Eastern Europe's most profound and original intellectuals to explore this fine line Between her birth in Vilnius in 1926 and her death in Warsaw in 2020 Janion witnessed some of the most consequential events of the turbulent twentieth century the rise of authoritarian nationalism in Poland German occupation during World War II Soviet control and Poland's uneasy integration into the West As Western countries face their own nationalist resurgences Janion's writing holds tools to help move through this historical condition The Bad Child offers sharp insights into how societies develop and assert their identities and histories often at the cost of the people Janion's reflections on fascism popular culture and national self fashioning presciently name and critique regional dynamics that have most recently resulted in the war between Russia and Ukraine and they broadly expose the illusions that cultures can promote and the dangerous slide from national pride to exclusionary right wing politics A queer woman and survivor of World War II a leftist who resisted Soviet orthodoxy Janion lends a uniquely disruptive voice to contemporary discussions of fascism and her insights resonate far beyond her Eastern

National Poets, Cultural Saints: Canonization and Commemorative Cults of Writers in Europe Marijan Dović, Jón Karl Helgason, 2016-11-28 In National Poets Cultural Saints Marijan Dović and Jón Karl Helgason explore the ways in which certain artists writers and poets in Europe have become major figures of cultural memory emulating the symbolic role formerly played by state rulers and religious saints The authors develop the concept of cultural sainthood in the context of nationalism as a form of invisible religion identify major shifts in canonization practices from antiquity to the nationally motivated commemoration of the nineteenth century and explore the afterlives of two national poets Slovenia's France Prešeren and Iceland's Jónas Hallgrímsson The book presents a useful analytical model of canonization for further studies on cultural sainthood and opens up fruitful perspectives for the understanding of national movements

Agnes's Final Afternoon Francois Ricard, 2004-09-28 Agnes's Final Afternoon imitates the protagonist of Milan Kundera's novel Immortality on the last afternoon of her life Like all readers of fiction Agnes steps out of the world of planned routes responsibilities and social self and gives herself up to the discovery of a new landscape an experience that will transform her Francois Ricard's essay enters into the writings of Milan Kundera in much the same way The landscape he explores includes a chain of ten novels composed between 1959 and 1999 and two books containing one of the most lucid reflections on the novel

Displaced Persons: Conditions of Exile in European Culture Sharon Ouditt, 2017-03-02 This lively and intellectually vigorous conspectus of studies approaches the subject of exile from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The contributions to this volume give due attention to the twentieth century migratory phenomena theorised by Edward Said Julia Kristeva and Salman Rushdie They also show that the discourse and experience of exile is not the stuff of modernity alone The volume illustrates that the waning of the Middle Ages Reformation and Restoration politics and the importation of Egyptian mummies into a nineteenth century England hungry for imperial exotica reveal displacement dislocation otherness and the uncanniness of observing strangers on display to have long been part of European cultural currency The essays range across a variety of disciplines literary studies modern languages history of science philosophy and museum studies

The Festival of Insignificance Milan Kundera, 2023-07-18 Slender but weighty What is moving about this novel is its embrace of what has always driven Kundera the delicate state of living between being and nothingness Boston Globe From the internationally acclaimed bestselling author of The Unbearable Lightness of Being an entertaining and enchanting novel a fitting capstone on an extraordinary career Slate Casting light on the most serious of problems and at the same time saying not one serious sentence being fascinated by the reality of the contemporary world and at the same time completely avoiding realism that s The Festival of Insignificance Readers who know Milan Kundera s earlier books know that the wish to incorporate an element of the unserious in a novel is not at all unexpected of him In Immortality Goethe and Hemingway stroll through several chapters together talking and laughing And in Slowness Vera the author s wife says to her husband you ve often told me you meant to write a book one day that would have not a single serious word in it I warn you watch out Your enemies are lying in wait Kundera is finally and fully realizing his old aesthetic dream in this novel that we could easily view as a summation of his whole work A strange sort of summation Strange sort of epilogue Strange sort of laughter inspired by our time which is comical because it has lost all sense of humor What more can we say Nothing Just read The Literary Review ,1991 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,David Remnick,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,1998-04
