

Sarcomatoid

Exploratory analyses from IMmotion 151 and CheckMate 214 have shown improved outcomes among patients with sarcomatoid features [67,68]. A meta-analysis showed improvement in PFS (HR 0.56) and OS (HR 0.56) with immune-based combinations[69].

Microbiome

Recent antibiotic exposure has been negatively associated with response in multiple retrospective analyses [59-61]. A recent study showed increased microbial diversity was associated with benefit[62].

hERVs

Human endogenous retroviruses (hERVs) are normally silenced but are upregulated in RCC [53]. The presence of hERVs has been associated with response to immunotherapy in multiple retrospective and post hoc analyses [32,54,55].

PBRM1

Mutations in Polybromo-1 (PBRM1) have been associated with response to immunotherapy [32,33,48]. However, exploratory analyses from CheckMate 214 and JAVELIN Renal 101 did not observe a significant difference [22,23].

PD-L1 IHC

Median OS was significantly improved in both PD-L1+ (HR 0.45) and PD-L1- (HR 0.73) cohorts in CheckMate 214 [8]. Differentiation between PD-L1+ and PD-L1- patients have been less evident in other combination trials (Table 1).

TMB

Several retrospective analyses in RCC have shown no association with high tumor mutational burden (TMB) and response [29-34]. TMB was not associated with PFS in either CheckMate 214 or JAVELIN Renal 101[22,23].

RNA Expression

Gene expression profiles developed using RNA sequencing have shown significant associations with response to immune-based combinations in several clinical trials (Table 2).

NLR

Retrospective analyses have shown improved outcomes among patients with a lower baseline neutrophil to lymphocyte ratio (NLR) [73,74]. Analysis of JAVELIN Renal 101 showed improved OS among patients with <median NLR; HR 0.51 [75].

Brady,2013-11-11 In the United States in 1997 28800 new cases of malignant tumors of the kidney and renal pelvis were diagnosed along with 2100 new cases of malignant tumors of the ureter and other urinary organs 7200 primary malignant tumors of the testis and 1300 primary malignant tumors of the penis and other genital organs In large measure surgery is the treatment of choice for these tumors but radiation therapy is increasingly recognized as having significant and important curative and palliative benefits in each of these tumor sites Surgery is the standard form of treatment for non metastatic renal cell carcinomas as well as for malignancies of the renal pelvis and ureter with radical nephrectomy and radical uretectomy being employed However postoperative radiation therapy is of value for those patients who demonstrate evidence of residual tumor following surgery transection of tumor during surgery or positive regional lymph node drainage As regards the rare tumors that involve the female urethra surgical resection is appropriate for those that are limited and local in character and amenable to partial ureterectomy With tumors that are more advanced in character however local recurrence and lymphatic dissemination are significant problems and treatment by radiation therapy programs alone yield satisfactory control rates as well as limited recurrences and long term survivors For primary tumors involving the testis the major approach to nonseminomatous tumors is surgical resection with postsurgical systemic chemotherapy Renal Cell Carcinoma Ronald M. Bukowski,Robert A. Figlin,Robert J. Motzer,2014-11-27 The third edition of this critically acclaimed book has updated and expanded the survey of clinical biological and pathological management of localized and advanced renal cell carcinoma Internationally renowned editors and contributors explore the latest developments in molecular genetics focusing on the novel targets that have been discovered in epithelial renal tumors Comprehensive and authoritative Renal Cell Carcinoma Molecular Targets and Clinical Applications Third Edition is the definitive text on the rapidly evolving landscape of experimental therapeutics written and edited by leaders of the field Comprehensive Textbook of Genitourinary Oncology Nicholas Vogelzang,2006 Thoroughly revised for its Third Edition this volume is the most comprehensive multidisciplinary text on genitourinary cancers This edition has two new editors Frans M J Debruyne and W Marston Linehan and more than 50% new contributors Seventeen new chapters cover familial prostate cancer biology of bone metastases molecular pathology and biologic determinants PSA and related kallikreins needle biopsy laparoscopic surgical procedures 3D conformal radiotherapy hormones and radiotherapy integration of chemotherapy and other modalities quality of life after treatment of localized prostate cancer management of rising PSA after local therapy the role of surgery in advanced bladder cancer post chemotherapy node dissections and resection of metastatic disease and stem cell transplantation Atlas of Clinical Urology E. series captures and explains the major areas of procedures This section also includes the management of benign modern urologic practice using a unique combination of images and malignant adrenal disorders Michael Marberger has assembled schematics tables and algorithms It does so in a compelling blend of an extremely diverse and important set of noncancerous fashion by combining a multilevel approach that includes the diseases of the kidney Nephrolithiasis management is covered individual volumes and the internet Urology is a specialty of great from medical therapy to endoscopy to incisional surgery The breadth and visual images provide much of the backbone of important role that laparoscopy has established in both excisional urologic diagnosis and endoscopy and are key to surgical tech and reconstructive renal surgery is visually depicted and unique The increasingly complex diagnostic and treatment paths explained The evolution of the techniques illustrated in this section will likely provide the basis for renal intervention in the are best depicted and understood as visual algorithms The editors of this five volume series have not only contributed 21st century their world renowned expertise to the chapters but have also Volume IV covers the diversity of pediatric urology under the assembled an outstanding group of individual chapter authors editorship of Dix Poppas and Alan Retik Contemporary Research on Renal Cell Carcinoma Gerd Staehler, Sigmund Pomer, 2012-12-06 The management of advanced renal cell carcinoma is still problematic Surgery although the therapy of choice for locally advanced renal tumors is still controversial as the treatment for metastases The role of surgery in the management of patients with pulmonary bony and liver metastasis is one of the subject matters discussed in this book Our results with series of patients undergoing resection of metastases from the lung bone and liver show that surgery may be appropriate in selected patients with a good performance status although most of them certainly cannot be cured by this procedure alone i e in the absence of effective adjuvant therapies As recent developments show new strategies for immunotherapy of renal cell carcinoma represent a modest advance over traditional approaches in the treatment of this cancer such as chemo and radiotherapy Clinical trials employing recombinant interferon α and interleukin 2 produced response rates in up to 30% of patients treated as evidenced by the European Immunotherapy Trials Program The adverse reactions and the lack of efficacy in the majority of patients warrants the search for new immunotherapeutic approaches

Clinical Management of Renal Tumors Ronald M. Bukowski, Andrew Novick, 2009-12-03 Clinical Management of Renal Tumors provides an in depth review of the data relating to the management of renal tumors as well as an updated description regarding pathologic and molecular classification of renal tumors The neoplasms covered include clear cell carcinomas papillary cancers nonepithelial tumors and other mass lesions that resemble tumors The management of patients with renal cancer having localized or advanced disease are discussed Surgical approaches for primary and metastatic tumors symptom palliation and systemic therapy for metastatic disease including immunotherapy and targeted approaches are discussed in detail Clinical Management of Renal Cell Cancer James E. Cell Carcinoma Ronald M. Bukowski, Andrew Novick, 2000-04-10 Renal cell carcinoma represents a heterogeneous group of tumors the most common of which is clear cell adenocarcinoma The annual incidence of this tumor appears to be rising and approximately 12 000 individuals die from this cancer annually in the United States One third of patients who present have metastatic disease at the time of diagnosis and another 40% who undergo nephrectomy will ultimately develop this complication Over the past 10 years a significant amount of new information concerning the epidemiology molecular and immunologic characteristics and therapy for patients with these tumors has appeared The recognition that inherited forms of renal cancer exist and that chromosomal abnormalities can be identified in these tumors suggested a genetic basis for renal cell carcinoma The familial cancer syndrome Von Hippel Lindau disease provided the setting in which the genetic abnormalities associated with the development of renal cancer were first described Abnormalities of the VHL gene have also been detected in sporadic clear cell carcinoma and it has now been recognized that approximately 80 % of these tumors will demonstrate characteristic alterations Currently the functions of the VHL protein are being investigated and the biology of clear cell carcinoma of the kidney is under study Additionally papillary carcinomas of the kidney appear to express different molecular defects and these are now being unraveled

Patients with Melanoma Anthony Ernest Maida, 2010 The MD Anderson Manual of Medical Oncology Hagop M. Kantarjian, Robert A. Wolff, Charles A. Koller, 2006-04-10 The MD Anderson Manual of Medical Oncology was designed to fill an important void in oncology reference material by serving as a hands on resource for the practicing oncologist It was written exclusively by MD Anderson faculty and fellows with the idea of presenting a bird's eye view of medical oncology as it is currently practiced at that institution While definitely written from the perspective of the medical oncologist this book clearly emphasizes MD Anderson's multidisciplinary approach to cancer care Furthermore while evidence based rationales are given for patient care strategies no apologies are offered for articulating the unique perspectives and biases as they apply to cancer biology and therapy as practiced at this top rated cancer center The rationales for ongoing clinical trials are clearly articulated as well as the importance of ongoing clinical investigation The authors have filled the book with tables graphics relevant pathology figures and other illustrative images making it visually stimulating Flowchart and diagrammatic algorithms are supplied to provide readers with a practical guide to the diagnostic and therapeutic strategies used at MD Anderson Numerous chapters address important palliative and supportive measures such as oncologic emergencies infections endocrine manifestations of non endocrine tumors palliation and long term followup
