Girl Scouts

the countys Girl Scout Council no longer will accept any checks during its annual cookie sale-a-thon.

During its last sale-a-thon, the council lost $4,284 due to worthlesschecks.

"That may not sound like a lot, but its a serious loss for us," said Linda Goree, the Girl Scout county executive. "It cuts into our profits, but al so wastes too many hours of our timme."

Next year, Goree said, thecountys Girl Scouts will accept only cash

Two factors agravated the prov problem during the scouts last sale-a-thon, Goree continued. First, more pepople paid by check. Second, a larger percentage of the checks teh Girl Scouts received bounced.

"Some people pay by check beause they don't have the cash," Goree said. "Or, they want to place a large order. We have people who place orders for $100 or more, and thesse poeple are especially likely to pay by check. we also receive checks for a little as one or two dollars."

Scout leaders call people who signed the checks that bounce and, in most cases,ask them to mail new checks to the cty. office. The scout leaders are unable to reach everyone, however. Smoe People have moved. Other s do not have telephones—or do not seem to answer their tele phones.

"usually its an honest mistake, ad andpeople are embarrassed when we call them," Goree said. "They want to take care of the problem right away. Other people say they want to pay but dont have the money, and we can usually work something out with them. Unfortunately, there are other people who get mad at us, like its our fault or something, and refuse to pay. Or, they write new checks that also bounce. It puts our leadess in a terrible situation. A Girl Scout leadershouldn't have to deal with problems like that. Also, its not a good situation or example for our girls, and that's the reason for our ne w policy, why we'll no longer accept any checks."
