

RULES FOR CRAZY EIGHTS

A Game for Two to Six Players

THE OBJECT is to get rid of cards by playing one at a turn. When play stops, cards held count against players. Low score wins.

TO PLAY: Shuffle cards and deal 5, one at a time, face down, to each player (with 2 players, deal 7). Place remaining cards, face down, as a drawing pile. Turn top card, face up, near drawing pile. This is the card on which other cards will be played. If this card is an 8, replace in pile and draw another.

Person at dealer's left starts by playing, face up, on the upturned card, one that matches it, either by number or suit. Example: a heart may be played on a heart, star on a star, 7 on 7, 5 on 5, etc. All 8's are wild and can be played, in turn, when a player wishes. After playing an 8, player states what suit next person is to play. All plays are to the left.

A player who cannot match a card or play an 8, draws from the pile until he can play. When the pile is exhausted, player passes if he cannot play.

Play stops when any person is out of cards, or when no one can play. Players total points. Count each card in hand at face value, except 8's which are 25 points. Continue the game until one player has a score of 100 points. Lowest score wins.
