Erickson, 2016-04 List of Oral History and Interview Participants Notes Index Gender and the Governance of Terrorism and Violent Extremism Ann-Kathrin Rothermel, Laura J. Shepherd, 2023-05-22 This book brings together a variety of innovative perspectives on the inclusion of gender in the governance of counter terrorism and violent extremism Several global governance initiatives launched in recent years have explicitly sought to integrate concern for gender equality and gendered harms into efforts to counter terrorism and violent extremism CT CVE As a result commitments to gender sensitivity and gender equality in international and regional CT CVE initiatives in national action plans and at the level of civil society programming have become a common aspect of the multilevel governance of terrorism and violent extremism In light of these developments there is a need for more systematic analysis of how concerns about gender are being incorporated in the governance of counter terrorism and violent extremism and how it has affected gendered practices and power relations in counterterrorism policy making and implementation Ranging from the processes of global and regional integration of gender into the governance of terrorism via the impact of the shift on government responses to the return of foreign fighters to state and civil society led CVE programming and academic discussions the essays engage with the origins and dynamics behind recent shifts which bring gender to the forefront of the governance of terrorism This book will be of great value to researchers and scholars interested in gender governance and terrorism The chapters in this book were originally published in Critical Studies on Terrorism Pedagogies of Voice Shane Safir, 2025-07-04 Transform your classroom into a liberatory space for student voice belonging and intellectual development Too often traditional educational models silence students voices and stifle their genius Pedagogies of Voice invites educators at all levels to reinvent their schools and classrooms into spaces that celebrate student identity nurture agency awaken inquiry and cultivate deep belonging for every child Pedagogies of Voice introduces four domains of agency Identity Belonging Inquiry and Efficacy foundational pillars for fostering student engagement and growth Additional features include 8 Pedagogies in Practice Strategies like microaffirmations questions over answers learning design templates and radical

Annual Summary of Investigations Relating to Reading ,1991 Western Journal of Education ,1947 Improving Reading Instruction in the Secondary School California. State Department of Education. Committee on Developmental Reading,1950 Directory of Public Secondary Schools in the State of California ,1949 A Plan to Improve California's Lowest Performing Schools California. Task Force on Schools with Underachieving Students,1988 California School Directory ,1949 American Paradox Renford Reese,2004

Over a half century since Ralph Ellison wrote the classic book Invisible Man black men have been trying to become visible In various ways black men have sought to get the attention of the world An intense quest to become seen heard and felt has manifested itself in rebellious and counterproductive behavior Whether it is the baggy pants the bandana the braids in the hair the earring or the tattoo black men have desperately striven for visibility

Perpetual gang warfare and an overemphasis on living a glamorous lifestyle have derailed many young black men from achieving success in the U S

Author Renford Reese examines how young African American males have unwittingly accepted one model of black masculinity The acceptance of this tough guy model is having detrimental consequences on an entire generation of young black men

The book s thesis is supported by a survey the author conducted of 756 African American males from the ages of 13 19 in Los Angeles and Atlanta This survey attempts to gauge the attitudes perceptions and basic knowledge of young African American men regarding black public figures

One component of this survey is a Realness Scale that the author constructed

Along with this survey interviews were conducted with various young black males to find out why they or many of their peers have embraced the gangsta thug persona

The results of the survey and interviews are fascinating

Although the primary focus of this book is on the young black male s acceptance of the gangsta thug image and his enthusiastic embrace of society s stereotypes this book also looks at the unkindness of the system

One would be naive to dismiss the historical impact of discriminatory policies and the systemic perpetuation of stereotypes in U S society

Hence this book examines the internal and external influences on the current black male identity

American Paradox and Reese s visits to prisons in California have already begun to pay off

In the Summer 2004 issue of Cal Poly Pomona the Community writer Jennifer Parsons talks about Reese s efforts mentioning that Reese keeps a note in his briefcase from a 31 year old prisoner serving time for manslaughter

According to her article the prisoner writes I used to love being looked up to for all the wrong reasons Now though I m on a whole new script My goal is to turn my misfortunes into a fortune I want to help inner city kids avoid situations such as my own He goes on to say I look forward to your visit There is so much in that book that I would like to speak with you on Reese raises serious questions regarding the state of life among African American youth that cannot be ignored The book an excellent source for discussion of issues in the black community and race relations in the US will surely be controversial Summing up Highly recommended CHOICE Magazine October 2004 American Paradox Young Black Men is an eye opening read that brings to focus some the contemporary social issues that black and white America are reluctant to discuss I would highly recommend it for courses in sociology political science and black studies Journal of Urban Affairs November 2006 The Gang Problem in America United States.
