The Sculptors Of Mapungubwe By Zakes Mda:

The Sculptors of Mapungubwe Zakes Mda, 2018-09-15 In the timeless kingdom of Mapungubwe the royal sculptor had two sons Chata and Rendani As they grew so grew their rivalry and their extraordinary talents But while Rendani became a master carver of the animals that run in the wild hills and lush valleys of the land Chata learned to carve fantastic beings from his dreams creatures never before seen on the Earth From this natural rivalry between brothers Zakes Mda crafts an irresistibly rich fable of love and family What makes the better art perfect mimicry or inspiration Who makes the better wife a princess or a mysterious dancer Ageless and contemporary deceptive in its simplicity and mythical in its scope The Sculptors of Mapungubwe encompasses all we know of love envy and the artist's primal power to forge art from nature and nature into art Mda's newest novel will only strengthen his international reputation as one of the most trenchant voices of South Africa Archives of Times Past Cynthia Kros, Geoffrey Blundell, Jan Boeyens, Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Amanda Esterhuysen, Grant McNulty, Rachel King, Hlonipha Mokoena, Lize Kriel, Fred Morton, Muchaparara Musemwa, Ndukuyakhe Ndlovu, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Himal Ramji, Justine Wintjes, 2022-02 Archives of Times Past explores particular sources of evidence on southern Africa's time before the colonial era It gathers recent ideas about archives and archiving from scholars in southern Africa and elsewhere focusing on the question How do we know or think we know what happened in the times before European colonialism The essays by well known historians archaeologists and researchers engage these questions from a range of perspectives and in illuminating ways Written from personal experience they capture how these experts encountered their archives of knowledge beyond the textbook The essays are written at a time when public discussion about the history of southern Africa before the colonial era is taking place more openly than at any other time in the last hundred years They will appeal to students academics educationists teachers archivists and heritage museum practitioners and the general public Teaching Postcolonial Environmental Literature and Media Cajetan Iheka, 2021-12-28 Provides strategies for teaching postcolonial environmental literature by writers from the Global South and indigenous peoples Topics and approaches include environmental justice queer ecofeminism animal studies migration anticolonialism petrofiction sea level rise environmental humanities and environmental justice organizations Works from Africa Latin America East Asia and the Caribbean are discussed Genetic Afterlives Noah Tamarkin, 2020-09-11 In 1997 M E R Mathivha an elder of the black Jewish Lemba people of South Africa announced to the Lemba Cultural Association that a recent DNA study substantiated their ancestral connections to Jews Lemba people subsequently leveraged their genetic test results to seek recognition from the post apartheid government as indigenous Africans with rights to traditional leadership and land retheorizing genetic ancestry in the process In Genetic Afterlives Noah Tamarkin illustrates how Lemba people give their own meanings to the results of DNA tests and employ them to manage competing claims of Jewish ethnic and religious identity African indigeneity and South African citizenship Tamarkin turns away from genetics researchers results that defined a single story of Lemba

Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call The Virginia Quarterly Review , 2018 Kaapse bibliotekaris , 2016 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 *Catalysing Rains.
