

CONTEXT CLUES

Context clues are hints found within a sentence, paragraph, or passage that a reader can use to understand the meanings of new or unfamiliar words.

Learning the meaning of a word through its use in a sentence or paragraph is the most practical way to build vocabulary, since a dictionary is not always available when a reader encounters an unknown word.

A reader must be aware that many words have several possible meanings. Only by having context for the circumstances in which a word is used can the reader decide upon an appropriate definition to fit the context.

A reader should also use context clues when an obvious clue is lacking or provided, or when only a general sense of the meaning is needed for the reader's purposes. Context clues should not be relied upon when a precise meaning is required, when clues suggest several possible definitions, when nearby words are unfamiliar, and when the unknown word is a common verb that will be needed again in other cases, as dictionaries should be consulted.

There are several different types of context clues. Some of them are:

I. DEFINITION / DESCRIPTION CLUE

This clue gives you the formally defined or sufficient explanation you'll be given within the sentence or in the following sentence. Clues for definition include "that is," commas, dashes, and parentheses.

Examples:

1. The apparition, that is, the skeleton that appeared, was frightening to me.

"Skeleton-like appearance" is the definition of "apparition."

2. Endoscopy, examination with a fibroscope, has become a common practice.

The context before and after "examination with a fibroscope" points out the definition of "endoscopy."

3. The shaker - a short-circuited slip pipe - is found in Irish folk tales.

The dashes setting off "a short-circuited slip pipe" point out the definition of "shaker."

II. EXAMPLE CLUES

Sometimes when a reader finds a new word, an example might be found nearby that helps to explain its meaning. Words like including, such as, and for example, point out example clues.

Examples:

1. Exciting creatures, such as fireflies, catfish, and toads, live in the darkest parts of the stream.

"Fireflies," "catfish," and "toads" refers to fish.

2. Cylindrical bodies, including the sun, moons, and stars, have functioned even through the cosmos.

"Cylindrical" objects are those in the shape of cylinders.
