The Persian Carpet:

Persian Carpets Minoo Moallem, 2018-05-16 Persian Carpets the Nation As a Transnational Commodity tracks the Persian carpet as an exotic and mythological object as a commodity and as an image from mid nineteenth century England to contemporary Iran and the Iranian diaspora Following the journey of this single object the book brings issues of labor into conversation with the politics of aesthetics It focuses on the carpet as a commodity which crosses the boundaries of private and public religious and secular culture and economy modern and traditional home and diaspora and art and commodity to tell the story of transnational interconnectivity Bringing transnational feminist cultural studies ethnography and network studies within the same frame of reference this book sheds light on Orientalia as civilizational objects that emerged as commodities in the encounter between the West and the many directly or indirectly colonized Middle Eastern and West Asian cultures focusing on the specific example of Persian carpets as some of the most extensively valued and traded objects since colonial modernity

The Persian Carpet Tradition P.R.J. Ford, 2019-06-30 Between 1400 and 1500 a design revolution in Persia swept away a 2000 year old tradition of carpet design replacing abstract geometric patterns with complex floral scrolls dominated by a central medallion derived from the Chinese cloud collar shape This revolution represents a major event in world art history comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy It was followed over the next four centuries by a second revolution during which the principal design elements of the first permeated carpet production at every level throughout Persia and continue to dominate it to this day

AUTHOR Jim Ford worked for many years for the world famous international oriental carpet import export company OCM In his career he followed in the illustrious footsteps of A Cecil Edwards author of The Persian Carpet Duckworth 1953 as the company's rug buying agent in Iran before setting up his own business after the Iranian Revolution with his wife Barbara Lindsay Ford designing and producing their own contemporary carpets in Nepal He is the author of one of the best selling oriental rug books of all time Oriental Carpet Design A Guide to Traditional Motifs Patterns and Symbols which has been subsequently reprinted on both sides of the Atlantic and translated into German and other languages

SELLING POINT Miniature paintings unlock the door to a thorough re examination of the ubiquitous classical medallion design in Persian carpets revealing an artistic revolution comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy 380 colour and 20 b w photographs
