The Old Man And The Medal By Ferdinand Oyono :

The Old Man and the Medal Ferdinand Oyono, 2013-08-13 Writing in French in the 1950s Ferdinand Oyono 1929-2010 had only a brief literary career but his anticolonialist novels are considered classics of twentieth century African literature Like Oyono's Houseboy also available from Waveland Press this novel fiercely satirizes the false pretenses of European colonial rule in Africa Meka a village elder has always been loyal to the white man It is with pride that he first hears he is to receive a medal While waiting for the ceremony however Meka's pride gives way to skepticism At the same time his wife has realized that the medal is being given to her husband as compensation for the sacrifices they have made The events following the ceremony confirm Meka's new estimation of the white man Both subtle and oftentimes humorous this beautifully told story lays bare the hollowness of the mission in Africa It fuels opportunities for discussing colonial politics around class and race as well as for exploring indigenous Cameroon life and values An Introduction to the African Prose Narrative Lokangaka Losambe, 2004 This collection of essays introduces students of African literature to the heritage of the African prose narrative starting from its oral base and covering its linguistic and cultural diversity The book brings together essays on both the classics and the relatively new works in all subgenres of the African prose narrative including the traditional epic the novel the short story and the autobiography The chapters are arranged according to the respective thematic paradigms under which the discussed works fall Ferdinand Oyono, the Old Man and the Medal S. Nnamonu, 1981 African Literature in French Dorothy S. Blair, 1976-11-18 This 1976 book provides both a historical survey and a critical analysis of the literature in French from West and Equatorial Africa Professor Blair begins by discussing the social educational and political influences which led to the formation of the Negritude movement and to a flowering of French African creative writing This historical approach is then complemented by a study of the different literary genres She traces the evolution of the first manifestations of literary activity in French by African writers the written folk tale fable and short story from the oral tradition of the indigenous culture and the eventual appearance of the novel with a legendary or historical theme The origins of French African drama are considered for the first time and the work of the minor poets analysed Finally Professor Blair attempts a definition of the French African novel and studies examples from three major periods from the 1930s onwards Minerva Guide to Ferdinand Oyono :The Old Man and the Medal A.N. Parasuram, Ferdinand Oyono, 1973 The Routledge Handbook of Africana Criminologies Biko Agozino, Emmanuel Onyeozili, Nontyatyambo Dastile, Viviane Saleh-Hanna, 2020-12-29 The Routledge Handbook on Africana Criminologies plugs a gaping hole in criminological literature which remains dominated by work on Europe and settler colonial locations at the expense of neocolonial locations and at a huge cost to the discipline that remains relatively underdeveloped It is well known that criminology is thriving in Europe and settler colonial locations while people of African descent remain marginalized in the discipline This handbook therefore defines and explores this field within criminology moving away from the colonialist approach of offering administrative criminology about policing courts and prisons and making a case for decolonizing the wider discipline Arranged in five parts it outlines Africana criminologies maps its emergence and addresses key themes such as slavery colonialism and apartheid as crimes against humanity critiques of imperialist reason Africana cultural criminology and theories of law enforcement and Africana people Coalescing a diverse range of voices from Africa and the diaspora the handbook explores outside Eurocentric canons in order to learn from the experiences struggles and contributions of people of African descent Offering innovative ways of theorizing and explaining the criminological crises that face Africa and the entire world with the view of contributing to a more humane world this groundbreaking handbook is essential reading for criminologists and sociologists worldwide as well as scholars of Africana studies and African studies The Rest Write

Back: Discourse and Decolonization ,2019-06-17 In The Rest Write Back Discourse and Decolonization Esmaeil Zeiny brings together a collection of essays that interrogate the colonial legacies the contemporary power structure and the geopolitics of knowledge production The scholars in this collection illustrate how the writing back paradigm engages in a conversation and paves the way for a dialogical and pluri versal world where the Rest is no longer excluded Among the important features of this book is that it presents ways for decoloniality and epistemic disobedience This book will be of interest to scholars and students of all Social Science and Humanities disciplines but it is particularly important for those in the disciplines of sociology postcolonial studies cultural studies literature and theory and philosophy of Social Sciences and Humanities Contributors include Dustin J Byrd Ciarunji Chesaina Hiba Ghanem Mladjo Ivanovic Masumi Hashimoto Odari Arjuna Parakrama JM Pers nch Andrew Ridgeway Rudolf J Siebert and Esmaeil Zeiny Literature East & West ,1954
