The Oxford Handbook of Civil Society Michael Edwards, 2013-07-04 Broadly speaking The Oxford Handbook of Civil Society views the topic of civil society through three prisms as a part of society voluntary associations as a kind of society marked out by certain social norms and as a space for citizen action and engagement the public square or sphere

Handbook of Research on NGOs Aynsley Kellow, Hannah Murphy-Gregory, 2018-09-28 This volume provides a critical overview of research on Non governmental Organisations NGOs While it notes that the definition of NGOs is contested and can include both business and national groups it focuses primarily on international NGOs engaged with human rights social and environmental concerns and aid and development issues With contributions by Peter Willetts Tom Davies Bob Reinalda and other leading scholars it provides a series of critical essays on both general aspects of NGOs and significant issues of particular concern

Sociology and Human Rights: New Engagements Patricia Hynes, Michele Lamb, Damien Short, Matthew Waites, 2014-02-25 Sociology and Human Rights New Engagements is the first collection to focus on the contribution sociological approaches can make to analysis of human rights Taking forward the sociology of human rights which emerged from the 1990s it presents innovative analyses of global human rights struggles by new and established authors The collection includes a range of new work addressing issues such as genocide in relation to indigenous peoples rights based approaches in development work trafficking of children and children s rights in relation to political struggles for the decriminalisation of same sex sexual activity in India It examines contexts ranging from Rwanda and South Korea to Northern Ireland and the city of Barcelona The collection as a whole will be of interest to students and academics working in various disciplines such as politics law and social policy and to practitioners working on human rights for various governmental and non governmental organisations as well as to sociologists seeking to develop understanding of the sociology of human rights This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of Human Rights

Peacebuilding and Friction Annika Björkdahl, Kristine Höglund, Gearoid Millar, Jair van der Lijn, Willemijn

Verkoren, 2016-03-02 This book aims to understand the processes and outcomes that arise from frictional encounters in peacebuilding when global and local forces meet Building a sustainable peace after violent conflict is a process that entails competing ideas political contestation and transformation of power relations This volume develops the concept of friction to better analyse the interplay between global ideas actors and practices and their local counterparts The chapters examine efforts undertaken to promote sustainable peace in a variety of locations such as Cambodia Sri Lanka Afghanistan and Sierra Leone These case analyses provide a nuanced understanding not simply of local processes or of the hybrid or mixed agencies ideas and processes that are generated but of the complex interactions that unfold between all of these elements in the context of peacebuilding intervention The analyses demonstrate how the ambivalent relationship between global and local actors leads to unintended and sometimes counterproductive results of peacebuilding interventions The approach of this book with its focus on friction as a conceptual tool advances the peacebuilding research agenda and adds to two ongoing debates in the peacebuilding field the debate on hybridity and the debate on local agency and local ownership In analysing frictional encounters this volume prepares the ground for a better understanding of the mixed impact peace initiatives have on post conflict societies This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution security studies and international relations in general

Concepts and Approaches for Sustainability Management Khai Ern

Lee, 2020-01-23 With the introduction of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development by the United Nations General Assembly in 25 September 2015 UN agencies member states and stakeholders have begun to focus on the adoption and implementation of these strategies in realization of 17 Sustainable Development Goals To work toward sustainability strategic measures to encourage stakeholders to contribute to the goals of the 2030 agenda are needed In recognition of these efforts this book is produced to compile research concepts and approaches for the area of sustainability management of industry technology development community education and the environment The objective of this book is to deliberate concepts and approaches of sustainability management taking place in Malaysia whereby case studies will be revealed to provide way forward of sustainability management toward achieving sustainable development The insights provided can be applied to advanced and developing countries by sustainable development practitioners encompassing government agencies academia industries NGOs and community who would like to adopt the concept of approach of sustainability into their area of management

Development and Humanitarianism Deborah Eade, Tony Vaux, 2007 Humanitarian intervention invariably rubs shoulders with politics albeit awkwardly and sometimes even with tragic results Tensions between them take many forms ranging from different assessments of the extent or even the existence of a crisis to claims that humanitarian assistance is not saving innocent lives but sustaining politico military forces or to the conclusion that the constraints upon them compel aid agencies to withdraw from the area of operation completely whether to ensure the safety of their own staff or because they believe that their integrity is unacceptably compromised by staying Development and Humanitarianism addresses these and other dilemmas that aid agencies face in interpreting the principles of humanitarianism in contexts where they risk being manipulated by political agendas The contributors have extensive experience as frontline aid workers agency policy makers academics and researchers and professional consultants around the world Like every book in the Development in Practice Readers series Development and Humanitarianism draws on the contents of the acclaimed international journal Development in Practice and includes an annotated resource list of recent publications relevant journals organizations and websites presenting a cutting edge guide to thinking and action Other Contributors Gretchen Alther Andrew Bonwick Julia Buckmaster Udan Fernando Dorothea Hilhorst Jonathan Makuwira Vanessa Pupavac Volker Schimmel Astri Suhrke Frank James Tester Martha Thompson and Suzanne Williams

A Radical History of Development Studies Uma Kothari, 2005-12 In this thought provoking collection some of the leading thinkers in Development Studies come together to examine the history of their multi disciplinary subject from its emergence during the era of decolonization half a century ago to its contemporary emphasis on poverty reduction They combine personal and institutional reflections with an examination of key themes including the intrusion into a subject traditionally dominated by Economics of social development considerations gender awareness and environmental concerns They draw attention to those ongoing critiques of development studies including Marxism and post development discourse which have been so often marginalized in representations of the mainstream development discourse

Varieties of Activist Experience David Gellner, 2010-08-06 This book examines in rich detail the lives struggles and strategies of South Asian activists seeking to advance various political social and environmental causes Through a series of case studies from Bangladesh India Nepal and Sri Lanka on activists efforts it elucidates how they mediate between different spheres that are often and sometimes legally kept apart the political and the legal the economic and the political the local and the international The uniqueness of this book lies in its treatment of civil society as a process brought into being by the actions of specific individuals whose struggles and experiences can profitably be examined for understanding everyday politics

Globalization, Imperialism, Social Development Yi-Lee Wong, 2008 There are two major aims for this book first to make a contribution to the academic debates and second to urge frontline INGO practitioners to reflect critically on their practices Referring to the practices of CEP in reforming the system of higher education in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova this book seeks to engage in two major debates one over the role of INGO in social development and two over the relationship between INGO and Imperialism In the discussion the author highlighted the elements that are usually overlooked in the existing literature namely contradiction and contingency Data is in the form of my first hand experience of working as a university lecturer teaching in several universities in Belarus Ukraine and Moldova and as a CEP visiting fellow actively involved in its activities The data poses challenges to the development logic of INGO and the logic of Imperialism this provides an interesting basis for a provocative discussion Since data also offers an interesting evaluation of CEP they reveal not only difficulties facing CEP in bringing changes to the former Soviet countries but also common problems of the system of higher education in this region Nongovernmental Organizations in International Society

Volker Heins,2008-03-15 Combining insights from the English School of International Relations and recent Frankfurt School works Heins furthers the understanding of international nongovernmental organizations NGOs in radically new and unexpected ways Journal of the Asiatic Society of Bangladesh ,2006 Philippine Political Science Journal ,2003

Neoliberalism, Civil Society and Security in Africa Pádraig Risteard Carmody,2007-10-17 Free market policies have been in operation across Africa for the past twenty five years yet they have failed to reverse deepening poverty on the continent This book explores why such policies continue to be implemented despite their failure and the ways in which they have been reinvented by socialization depoliticization regionalization and securitization The impacts of these policies on security are traced through case studies of Ethiopia Zimbabwe and South Africa and ways to transcend neoliberalism on the continent are also explored The Indian Journal of Social Work ,2009 The Dhaka University Studies ,2006
