on many spheres ranging from energy security to agriculture At the same time we are raising the question of whether the current era deserves to be classified as the new Cold War If so who are the competing parties and in what ways is this new Cold War differs from the one that ended in 1991 with the United States and the liberal world emerging victorious To come up with sufficient and informative answers for these critical questions we assembled a large number of extremely valuable articles written by eminent researchers policymakers journalists and young experts All around the world from the United States to Russia and from T rkiye to Sweden manuscripts came in from our contributors Hence it is with great pleasure that we provide you with this very qualified issue which investigates several facets of the emerging global order from an international perspective Professor Richard Sakwa investigates the causes of the resurgence of the Cold War and examines the differences between it with the original confrontation He thinks the Cold War mentality is once again ruling world relations These arguments suggest that the hope that the conclusion of the Cold War in 1989 would usher in a more universal and permanent peace has largely been disproved instead by 2014 the centennial of the beginning of World War I Europe was once again in the grips of bloody war The United States and the rest of the Political West as it had been reshaped by the Cold War remained on one side On the other hand he claims that a considerably diminished Russia has replaced the defunct Soviet Union and that this is happening alongside a China that is determined to regain its great power position Professor Li Bennich Bj rkman argues that Russia is using bombings attacks and cruelty to obliterate Ukraine s history As a result she sees the current conflict as a struggle to maintain the recollection of what a peaceful Ukraine looked like smelt like tasted like and felt like She contends that a split between Russia and Ukraine is inconceivable for Putin because of Ukraine s strategic importance to Russia Ukrainian President Leonid Kravchuk understood this as early as 1991 She says that he and other Ukrainian leaders sought to defend Ukrainian territory while assuring Moscow that amicable ties remained a possibility Russia she complains has never undergone a comparable transformation Professor Ziya ni who believes that we are in the midst of a Neo Cold War focuses more on the conflict between the West and the Rest He claims that the clash between democratic and authoritarian capitalism the defining conflict of the new era was exacerbated by Russia s invasion of Ukraine According to him the concerted effort of Western nations to end the conflict was evidence of the resurgence of the democratic club of Western governments and their allies G7 plus He also argues that a significant schism in opinion has developed between the West and the Rest as a direct result of the War He claims that the Russian War in Ukraine ushers in a new era in the post Western world one in which territorial conquests are accepted as the norm setting the path for more armed clashes in a globe already riven by war Professor Nicolai N Petro maintains that the healing of the Ukrainian people is often forgotten among the numerous conflicting narratives that drive the war in Ukraine He argues that this is because the West is ignoring the Other Ukraine whose dissatisfaction with the actions of the Ukrainian government since 2014 has stoked tensions According to him the West s reaction to Russia s incursion has focused on punishing Moscow but hasn t done
