Learning Lessons from Waco Jayne Seminare Docherty, 2001 This intensive case study derives lessons for negotiation theory research and practice from the Waco disaster The siege at Waco simply refuses to disappear Recently uncovered evidence an ongoing civil suit and the Danforth investigation fuel public interest and controversy Heated debates about what really happened in Waco are a recurring public drama Yet little or no attention has been given to the work of the negotiator who talked with the Branch Davidians This important book utilizes largely unexplored sources of data to explain why fifty one days of negotiations by federal officials failed to get Branch Davidians to exit the compound as desired Learning Lessons from Waco applies a theory of worldview conflict to the more than 12 000 pages of negotiation transcripts from Waco Through perceptive analysis of the situation Jayne Seminare Docherty offers a fresh perspective on the activities of law enforcement agents She shows how the Waco conflict resulted from a collision of two distinct worldviews the FBI s and the Davidians and their divergent notions of reality By exploring the failures of the negotiations she also urges a better understanding of encounter

Criminology as Peacemaking Harold E. Pepinsky,Richard Quinney,1991 Criminology has traditionally been a military science a science of war The criminal element is the enemy Repression and restraint are the primary tools of criminal justice and criminologists study how to make those tools effective in the war on crime We are beginning to realize that this is a war against ourselves and one that we are losing Our inability to make peace with crime and criminals is reflected in the paucity of our daily personal relations where we live by domination and discipline where forgiveness and mercy are seen as naive surrender to victimization The essays in this volume propose peacemaking as an effective alternative to the war on crime They range from studies of the intellectual roots of the peacemaking tradition to concrete examples of peacemaking in the community with special attention to feminist peacemaking traditions and women s experience
