Memory, Place and Identity Danielle Drozdowski, Sarah De Nardi, Emma Waterton, 2016-05-20 This book bridges theoretical gaps that exist between the meta concepts of memory place and identity by positioning its lens on the emplaced practices of commemoration and the remembrance of war and conflict This book examines how diverse publics relate to their wartime histories through engagements with everyday collective memories in differing places Specifically addressing questions of place making displacement and identity contributions shed new light on the processes of commemoration of war in everyday urban fa ades and within generations of families and national communities Contributions seek to clarify how we connect with memories and places of war and conflict The spatial and narrative manifestations of attempts to contextualise wartime memories of loss trauma conflict victory and suffering are refracted through the roles played by emotion and identity construction in the shaping of post war remembrances This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective with insights from history memory studies social psychology cultural and urban geography to contextualise memories of war and their use by national governments perpetrators victims and in family histories

Memory Politics, Identity and Conflict Zheng Wang, 2017-10-10 This book focuses on the methodology of research on historical memory and contributes to theoretical discussions concerning the use of historical memory as a variable to explain political action and social movement The chapters of the book conceptualize the relationship between historical memory and national identity formation perceptions and policy making The author particularly analyses how contested memory and the related social discourse can lead to nationalism and international conflict Based on theories and research from multiple fields of studies this book proposes a series of analytic frameworks for the purpose of conceptualizing the functions of historical memory These analytic frameworks can help categorize measure and subsequently demonstrate the effects of historical memory This book also discusses how to use public opinion polls textbooks important texts and documents monuments and memory sites for conducting research to examine the functions of historical memory

Memory Sites and Conflict Dynamics Karina V. Korostelina, 2024-10-21 This book explores the ways in which memory sites contribute to the dynamics of identity based conflicts fueling fears and sharpening divisions or promoting commonalities and reducing violence Through an analysis of the dynamics of identity based conflicts the book shows how memory sites become intertwined with the transformations of social boundaries and perceptions of relative deprivation outgroup threat collective axiology and power relations It posits that these two sets of factors the functioning of collective memory as an ideological construct and the transformation of conflictual social relations define the role and influence of memory sites in the dynamics of identity based conflicts Through multiple case studies representing different dynamics dealing with fascist and communist pasts in Italy post colonial relations between South Korea and Japan ethnic conflict in Kosovo and tribal acknowledgment for Native American Nations the book discusses how memory sites contribute to competition over ownership fights for legitimacy claims of entitlements and negative portrayals of the Other In doing so it outlines four major functions of memory sites enhancing ascribing interacting and legitimizing and shows how they contribute to and shape the structure and dynamics of conflict Concentrating on the linkages between memory sites violence prevention and reconciliation the book proposes solutions for promoting peace including the focus on plurality of heritage recognition of fluidity of meanings and resistance to singular interpretations and manipulations by identity entrepreneurs This volume will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies memory studies and International Relations in general

The Role of Memory in War Politics and Post-Conflict Reconciliation Lily Hamourtziadou, Przemyslaw Lukasik, 2026-03-09 The Role of Memory in War Politics and Post Conflict Reconciliation Historical Memory in Crisis explores how memories of war trauma and national identity shape politics diplomacy and reconciliation across Europe and beyond Spanning from the Second World War to the current Russia Ukraine war the book examines how governments and societies choose to remember or forget their past How do states use history to justify current policies Why do certain events become national myths while others are erased And how can memory be used to promote peace instead of conflict Through case studies from the UK Poland Romania Georgia Ukraine Austria and the Czech Republic the book explores how war memorials education systems and media shape public opinion and foreign policy Part one looks at past conflicts and their commemoration while part two focuses on the Russia Ukraine war as a living example of memory in action Special attention is given to young people s perspectives and the role of cultural memory in their views on war and identity Bridging history politics and culture the book shows that memory is not static it is a battleground Whether manipulated by elites or reclaimed by citizens how we remember the past deeply affects our present choices and future peace This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of political science history international relations sociology psychology anthropology and media studies

The Politics of War Memory and Commemoration T. G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, 2000 War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes which have led to this development among them the passing of the two World Wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the centre of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood The Role of Memory in Ethnic Conflict E. Cairns, M. Roe, 2002-12-13 What insights can we gain from the social sciences about the role memory plays in creating or re creating the many conflicts threatening global peace in the twenty first century Indeed can knowledge about the relationship between memory and conflict help resolve intergroup conflicts and heal individual hurts This book presents a series of essays both theoretical and empirical that approach these questions from a variety of disciplines that will highlight a much neglected aspect of one of the major problems facing the world today

Commemorative Events Warwick Frost, Jennifer Laing, 2017-05-25 Commemorative Events emphasise remembering They are held on the anniversaries of significant past events either annually or after significant time periods Commemorative events provide fascinating insight into how societies see themselves their heritage and their identity These events however carry high propensity for controversy as memory and identity are highly subjective and other stakeholders hold different views of what should be commemorated and why This is the first book to provide an in depth critical examination of commemorative events particularly what they mean to societies and how they are used by governments as well as impacts on other stakeholders The book fully explores these issues by reviewing all the major types of commemorative events including nationhood or independence wars battles famous people and cultural milestones from varying geographical regions and stakeholder perspectives By doing so the book furthers understanding of these types of events in society as well as furthering knowledge of social and political uses and impacts of events This thought provoking volume will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in events Post-Conflict Memorialization Olivette Otele, Luisa

Gandolfo, Yoav Galai, 2021-03-08 As the world negotiates immense loss and questions of how to memorialize the contributions in this volume evaluate the role of culture as a means to promote reconciliation either between formerly warring parties perpetrators and survivors governments and communities or within the self Post Conflict Memorialization Missing Memorials Absent Bodies reflects on a distinct aspect of mourning work the possibility to move towards recovery while in a period of grief waiting silence or erasure Drawing on ethnographic data and archival material from Bosnia Herzegovina Argentina Palestine Israel Wales Peru Colombia Hungary Chile Pakistan and India the authors analyze how memorialization and commemoration is practiced by communities who have experienced trauma and violence while in the absence of memorials mutual acknowledgement and the bodies of the missing This timely volume will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students postdoctoral researchers and scholars with an interest in memory studies sociology history politics conflict and peace studies Memory Activism and Digital Practices after Conflict Orli Fridman, 2025-10-01 This book investigates the study of memory activism and memory of activism emerging after conflict as a political civic action It examines the appearance and growth of memory activism in Serbia amid the legacies of unwanted memories of the wars of the 1990s approaching the post Yugoslav region as a region of memory and tracing the alternative calendars and alternative commemorative practices of memory activists as they have evolved over a period of more than two decades By presenting in depth accounts of memory activism practices on site and online Memory Activism and Digital Practices after Conflict Unwanted Memories analyses this evolution in the context of generational belonging and introduces frameworks for the study of hashtag memoryactivism alternative commemorations and commemorative solidarity Post-Conflict Performance, Film and Visual Arts Des O'Rawe,Mark Phelan,2016-07-28 Drawing on a range of cities and conflicts from Europe Africa and the Middle East the collection explores the post conflict condition as it is lived and expressed in modern cities such as Berlin Belfast Bilbao Beirut Derry Skopje Sarajevo Tunis Johannesburg and Harare Post Conflict Performance Film and Visual Arts Cities of Memory investigates how the memory of conflict can be inscribed in historical monuments human bodies and hermeneutic acts of mapping traversing representing and performing the city Several essays explore the relations between memory history and urban space where memory is located and how it is narrated as well as various aspects of embodied memory testimonial memory traumatic memory counter memory false memory post memory Other essays examine the representations of post war cities and how cultural imaginations relate to the politics of reconstruction in places devastated by protracted urban warfare Post Conflict Performance Film and Visual Arts Cities of Memory offers a comparative survey of the complex and often controversial encounters between public art political memory and commemoration in divided societies as well as offering insights into the political and ethical difficulties of balancing the dynamics of forgetting and remembering
