The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo,Nicholas E. Kuefler,2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror s invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period Who commissioned it and for what purpose What was the intended venue for its display Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry's main register This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom The monographs articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion patronage of the Tapestry biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry arms and armor medieval warfare strategy and techniques opus anglicanum the Anglo Saxon needlework tradition preservation and display of the artifact the Tapestry's place in medieval art the embroidery's depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself

Ancient Greeks on the Human Condition Matthew Sims, 2021-08-19 This book examines the writings of four ancient Greeks Homer Thucydides Euripides and Aristophanes Each of these four individuals represents a different approach toward the human condition ranging from the heroic and tragic to the comic and absurd This book focuses on how the human condition can best be understood within the framework of these four perspectives by examining the major contributions of these Greek writers whether in the form of epic Homer's Iliad history Thucydides History of the Peloponnesian War or drama the plays of Euripides and Aristophanes These various perceptions of Greek thought illuminate our understanding of what it means to be fully human By focusing on the concepts of the heroic tragic comic and absurd we can see how these ancient Greek authors still provide key insights for us today as they clarify those timeless features that define the human condition

International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television Tüysüz, Dilan, 2020-12-22 Aestheticization of evil is a frequently used formula in cinema and television However the representation of evil as an aesthetic object pushes it out of morality Moral judgments can be pushed aside when evil is aestheticized in movies or TV series because there is no real victim Thus situations such as murder or war can become a source of aesthetic pleasure Narratives in cinema and television can sometimes be based on a simple good evil dichotomy and sometimes they can be based on individual or social experiences of evil and follow a more complicated method Despite the various ways evil is depicted it is a moral framework in film and television that must be researched to study the implications of aestheticized evil on human nature and society International Perspectives on Rethinking Evil in Film and Television examines the changing representations of evil on screen in the context of the commonness normalization aestheticization marginalization legitimization or popularity of evil The chapters provide an international perspective of the representations of evil through an exploration of the evil tales or villains in cinema and television Through looking at these programs this book highlights topics such as the philosophy of good and evil the portrayal of heroes and villains the appeal of evil and evil's correspondence with gender and violence This book is ideal for sociologists professionals researchers and students working or studying in the field of cinema and television and practitioners academicians and anyone interested in the portrayal and aestheticization of evil in international film and television The Principles of New Ethics III Wang Haiming,2020-05-17 From Descartes to Spinoza Western philosophers have attempted to propose an axiomatic systemization of ethics However without consensus on the contents and objects of ethics the system remains incomplete This four volume set presents a model that highlights a Chinese philosopher s insights on ethics after a 22 year study Three essential components of ethics are examined metaethics normative ethics and virtue ethics This volume is the second part of the discussion on normative ethics The author analyzes humanity liberty justice happiness and systems of moral rules He puts forward 26 value standards that construct a system of measuring state instruction reveals the relationship between humanity liberty and justice puts forward three objective laws of happiness and discusses the goodness of important moral rules such as honesty self respect and courage This set is an essential read for students and scholars of ethics and philosophy in general The Humanistic Tradition Volume II Gloria K.
