Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction

Writing Changes: Alphabetic Text and Multimodal Composition Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2020-04-01 Writing Changes moves beyond restrictive thinking about composition to examine writing as a material and social practice rich with contradictions It analyzes the assumed dichotomy between writing and multimodal composition which incorporates sounds images and gestures as well as the truism that all texts are multimodal Organized in four sections the essays explore alphabetic text and multimodal composition in writing studies specific pedagogies that place writing in productive conversation with multimodal forms current representations of writing and multimodality in textbooks of instructors attitudes toward social media and of writing programs ideas about writing studies as a discipline in the light of new communication practices Bookending the essays are an introduction that frames the collection and establishes key terms and concepts and an epilogue that both sums up and complicates the ideas in the essays

Embracing Writing Gary R. Hafer, 2014-09-29 Embracing WRITING Embracing Writing responds to the writing across the curriculum movement in a way that enables educators to integrate writing into their courses not just painlessly but productively instead of simply increasing their workloads with writing assignments that students dislike Embracing Writing elucidates the principles of academic writing and shows instructors how to integrate writing with course content blending them to enhance and deepen the higher education learning process Scholarly writing is a central part of the academic experience and when used effectively can be an outstanding pedagogical tool The creative approach in Embracing Writing will have you looking at writing in a whole new way Not only will your students appreciate the honest nurturing and fun writing assignments but your own writing will improve as well This is not a rulebook for writers but a guided approach to viewing writing and content as one indivisible whole Embracing Writing will help you Engage students in writing assignments that actually help them develop their writing ability Understand what makes good collegiate writing and how it can aid in content discovery Discover new pathways for your own writing so writing for publication and the classroom is enjoyable again Develop a writing pedagogy that doesn't detract from core course content delivery There often is a disconnect between administrative demands for in course writing and the inadequate training resources available to faculty members Because most of us aren't trained as writers we need a meaningful way to connect writing to our areas of expertise Embracing Writing provides that connection

Young Adult Literature in the Composition Classroom Tamara Girardi, Abigail G. Scheg, 2018-08-27 Young adult literature holds an exceptional place in modern American popular culture Accessible to readers of all levels it captures a diverse audience and tends to adapt to the big screen in an exciting way With its wide readership YAL sparks interesting discussions inside and outside of the classroom This collection of new essays examines how YAL has impacted college composition courses primarily focusing on the first year Contributors discuss popular YA stories their educational potential and possibilities for classroom discussion and exercise
