RETHINK Design Guide Nicola Gillen, Pippa Nissen, Julia Park, Adam Scott, Sumita Singha, Helen Taylor, Ian Taylor, Sarah Featherstone, 2021-02-18. The world has changed. How will society emerge post-pandemic? Will we take the opportunity to reset the status quo? And if so, what possibilities are there for architects to take the initiative in designing this new world? This innovative design guide draws together expert guidance on designing in the immediate aftermath of the pandemic for key architectural sectors: housing, workplace, civic and cultural, hospitality, education, infrastructure and civic placemaking. It provides design inspiration to architects on how they can respond to the challenges and opportunities of a post-pandemic environment and how architects ensure they are at the forefront of the best design in this new world. Looking at each sector in turn, it covers the challenges specific to each and how delivering these designs might differ from the pre-pandemic world. As well as post-pandemic design, the vital issue of climate change will be threaded through each sector, with many cross-overs between designing for the climate emergency and designing for a world after a pandemic. Both seek to make the world a safer, happier and more resilient place. Written by a set of contributing design experts, this book is for all architects, whether sole practitioners or working in a larger practice. As well as inspirational design guidance, it also provides client perspectives crucial for understanding how clients are planning for the future too.

Working Woman ,2001 Critical Perspectives on the Security and Protection of Human Rights Defenders

Karen Bennett,Danna Ingleton,Alice Nah,James Savage,2018-04-19 Human rights defenders who by peaceful means advocate mobilise and often put their lives at risk to defend the most fundamental freedoms of their fellow citizens are key agents of change in their own societies and make a significant contribution to the international community s efforts to support democracy and human rights Defenders often face serious threats and can experience harm by state and non state actors Since the United Nations General Assembly s adoption of the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders in 1998 there has been considerable effort to recognise and protect the right of individuals groups and communities to promote and protect their own rights and the rights of others Over time a multi level multi actor international protection regime for the rights of human rights defenders has emerged which is based on existing rights derived from the international human rights regime The authors in this book reflect on the positive developments that have emerged over time to strengthen the protection of defenders as well as the debates tensions and contestations in such practices This collection provides a critical appraisal of the construction function ethical boundaries and evolution of this protection regime as well as its multi scalar social and political effects In particular the authors consider the effectiveness of particular international and regional protection mechanisms for the protection of defenders and examine the relationship between repression activism and tactics for managing risks in the face of danger This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Human Rights
