Teaching English With AI Gusti Astika, 2025-04-27 Teaching English with AI is a practical guide for high school English teachers who want to start using Artificial Intelligence in the classroom. It offers simple, clear strategies to make your lessons more engaging, reduce your workload, and give students more personalized learning without replacing the human touch that makes teaching meaningful. You'll learn how to use AI tools to support students outside class, automate tasks like grading and feedback, and create lessons that match each student's level. From writing help to speaking practice, lesson planning to gamified learning, this book shows how AI can make your job easier and your classroom more exciting. It also addresses real concerns like feeling unsure about AI or wondering how to use it responsibly. With ready-to-use ideas, lesson plans, and an easy action plan, this book will help you feel more confident using AI while keeping students at the heart of your teaching.

Writing Instruction Across the Disciplines Steve Graham, Carol Booth Olson, Tanya Baker, Huy Q. Chung, Undarmaa Maamuujav, Jacob Steiss, 2025-12-05 This book translates the best current research on adolescent writing instruction into teacher-friendly practices that are easy to implement in today's diverse classrooms. Leading experts present instructional methods that are applicable across the curriculum as well as specific, proven techniques to build writing skills and promote critical thinking in English language arts, social studies, science, and math. Key chapters address multimodal writing and pedagogical uses of generative artificial intelligence (AI). Other essential topics include self-regulated strategy development, culturally sustaining writing practices, writing for college readiness, and teaching argument writing. Guiding Questions, Action Steps, and helpful classroom examples in each chapter enhance the book's utility as a teacher resource and course text.

Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction VanSlander, Jennifer, 2023-10-11 Writing is a critical skill for academic and professional success, yet it is often neglected in schools. According to achievement data, only a quarter of students in the United States are proficient writers, indicating a significant need for improvement in writing instruction. One contributing factor to this problem is the lack of school and district leadership in writing instruction. School improvement efforts are often concentrated on reading and math, leaving writing instruction overlooked. Additionally, issues related to writer identities, self-efficacy in writing, and educator training can also impact the effectiveness of instructional leadership in this critical subject. Instructional Leadership Efforts and Evidence-Based Practices to Improve Writing Instruction, edited by Jennifer VanSlander of Columbus State University, provides within this peer-reviewed book an exploration of evidence-based practices aimed at developing instructional leaders and enhancing student achievement in writing. It covers a broad range of topics related to writing instruction, including learning theories, conceptual models, and the latest empirical research associated with the supervision, organization, implementation, and monitoring of writing programs and instructional approaches. With its emphasis on writer identities, self-efficacy, equitable and inclusive practices, curriculum planning, and implementation, assessment, instructional frameworks, and managing instructional change this book provides educators with a comprehensive guide to improving writing instruction It is an essential resource for educators who seek to increase the effectiveness of instructional leadership and writing instruction at the classroom school or district level
