Abu R Rida Tafsir Al Quran Al Karim:

The Qur'an Oliver Leaman, 2006-05-02 A RUSA 2007 Outstanding Reference Title The Qur'an is the source of inspiration for one of the world's major religions followed today by over a billion people. It plays a central role in Islam and ever since it appeared fourteen hundred years ago has been the subject of intense debate. Some of this has been carried out by Muslims and some by those hostile or indifferent to Islam producing a very wide range of views. Authored by forty-three international experts, the objective of The Qur'an: An Encyclopedia is to present this diversity of thought approach and school without priority in order to give a strong appreciation of the range of response that the text has provoked throughout its history and providing students and researchers with a powerful one-volume resource covering all aspects of the text and its reception. Islam and the Qur'an are much in the news today and there is a public debate going on in which things are said about the Qur'an without much knowledge or understanding of the book. Every effort has been made to help the reader use the Encyclopedia as an investigative tool in Quranic studies. The volume assumes no previous knowledge of the Qur'an, Islam or Arabic. Technical terms are explained in the text itself and the style of each entry is designed to be as self-contained as possible. Entries are cross-referenced and many include a brief bibliography. At the end of the work there is a substantial annotated bibliography providing a detailed guide to the most significant books, journals and articles in Quranic Studies. There is a full index. The readership will include those seeking basic information on the Qur'an; however, the substantial number of longer entries means that it will also be used by specialists. The Astronomical Calculations and Ramadan: a Fiqhi Discourse Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2009-01-01 Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon, Komatsu Hisao, Kosugi Yasushi, 2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas, this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century. The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication, learning and authority. While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background, the volume discloses commonalities, similarities and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach. Consisting of two parts, the volume focuses first on al-Manar, the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world. The second part discusses the formation, transmission and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia. Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world, this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies. The Making of an Egyptian Arab Nationalist Ralph M. Coury, 1998 This study of the early years of Abd al-Rahman Azzam Pasha, the first Secretary General of the Arab League, addresses persisting questions about the development of Arab nationalism in Egypt. It focuses upon Azzam's student activism in Egypt and Europe, his participation in the Libyan resistance to Italy before and after World War I and his advocacy of Egyptian Arab nationalism between the two World Wars Index Islamicus, 1994 A bibliography of books and index of articles in periodicals on Islam and the Muslim world Also includes reviews Related Worlds - Studies in Jewish and Arab Ancient and Early Medieval History Moshe Gil, 2023-07-28 An element common to all the articles collected here is the attempt to make parallel use of sources from different cultures Biblical and Talmudic Hebrew Greek and Latin Arabic and Judaeo Arabic comparing these different but complementary sources in the investigation of topics in Jewish and Arabic history In the first studies Professor Gil deals primarily with the Roman and Byzantine periods elucidating how a Biblical term was understood the historical significance of passages from the Mishna and the origins of the Book of Enoch The next group is concerned with the history of early Islam during the years in which the Prophet Muhammad lived and worked and later traditions of this period The final studies are based specifically on sources from the Cairo Geniza and examine a term of Greek origin and questions of taxation and commerce Religious Diversity in Contemporary Shi'i Thought: The Views of Ayatollah 'Abdollah Javadi-Amoli and Professor Mahmoud Ayoub Saeid Sobhani, 2022-01-01 The question of religious diversity and the related issues of validity truth and salvation can immensely impact our lives in the modern closely knit global society they may help improve or ruin the relationships between faith communities In the context of Christianity these issues have led to the emergence of three types of theology exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism This book analyses the views of two contemporary Shi'i thinkers Ayatollah Abdullah Javadi Amoli and Professor Mahmoud Mustafa Ayoub who have tried to deal with the challenges posed by the above three types of theology from an Islamic perspective The book discusses among other things the impact of the social and educational backgrounds of these two thinkers on their research methodologies particularly their ways of interpreting the Qur'an Since both thinkers are interested in the question of dialogue between people of different faiths this inquiry also highlights the views of Ayoub and Javadi Amoli on the question of dialogue its common ground goals conditions and presuppositions Pakistan Journal of Women's Studies, 1999 Islam, tradisi, dan peradaban Zuhri, 2012 Study on Islam and its civilization also its implementation in social life in Indonesia Dictionary Catalog of the Oriental Collection New York Public Library.
