Black History's Power to Combat Racism: How Black History Can Save Your Life by Ernest Crim III, a hate crime survivor and Anti-Racist Educator, is an essential guide for anyone seeking to combat interpersonal racism, understand the roots of discrimination, and gain actionable strategies through Black historical narratives. This Black history book for adults empowers individuals, parents, and educators with tools to challenge racism and foster equity in their communities. Using Black history to fight racism, this book builds on Crim's personal experiences, including a viral 2016 hate crime incident that profoundly shaped his career. During a night out, Crim was targeted with racial slurs, but instead of letting it defeat him, he used the situation to highlight the pervasive nature of racism in America. He captured the moment on video, sparking a national conversation about the importance of confronting and addressing discrimination. Reclaiming the stories of Black history, Crim delves deep into the stories of Black excellence, resistance, and perseverance. He equips families, parents, and educators with the tools they need to combat racism in everyday life and within schools. Through his lens as a parent and former teacher, Crim demonstrates how the untold stories of Black history hold the keys to understanding the roots of racism and how it can be untaught. Drawing on his two bestsellers, Black History Saved My Life and The ABCs of Affirming Black Children, Crim teaches readers how to deconstruct racist systems and foster equitable practices in their communities. Inside, you'll find strategies to de-escalate and combat interpersonal racism in everyday situations, tools for parents and educators, to address racism in schools and educate children through an equitable lens Inspiring Black history stories that provide a blueprint for resilience and empowerment in the face of discrimination If you liked The Color of Law Stamped from the Beginning or Seven Sisters and a Brother you ll love How Black History Can Save Your Life The Spectator ,1889
