

Conclusion

- The information thus collected from the respondents of the study presented the prevailing situation of shopping malls in Ludhiana. Because of the changing consumer moods, increasing purchasing power and more frequent visits of teenagers, entrepreneurs have developed new formats for providing merchandize and services ranging through the shopping malls that attracts them.
- It was observed that there are big players sharing the youth fashion-pie and have carved themselves as permanent stop providers for the customers. Whatever the clothing or style they want, whatever accessories to go over, being hip hop or just playing casual, good retailers will provide them all.
