Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy

Joy E. Akahome, Michael Twum-Darko, Cyril Ogbokor, Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke, T. Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was

demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment

Systemic and Systematic Risk

Management Joseph E. Kasser, 2020-05-14 This book discusses risk management as it applies to problem solving for simple complex and wicked problems faced by policy creators and implementors project managers and systems engineers in the context of policies large engineering projects LEPs projects and systems When applying systems thinking to risk management it can be seen that risk management applies to almost every action taken in daily life This book Introduces the systems approach of integrating risk management into policy creation and implementation project management and systems engineering such as the risk framework and the Firm Fixed Price FFP contract with penalties and bonuses Introduces a number of out of the box concepts building on the application of the systems thinking tools in the system thinker s toolbox Points out that integrating risk management into policy and project management and systems engineering is just good management and engineering practice Discusses the flow of risk in a policy from creation through implementation via LEPs and simpler projects identifying where risks arise and where they should be dealt with Presents the risks in the relationship between policy creation implementation project management and systems engineering Discusses risks throughout the policy implementation process and shows how the nature of risks changes from political to financial to technological as implementation proceeds Discusses managing complexity and specifies the minimum number of elements in a system for it to be defined as and managed as complex Points out that in most instances the traditionally ignored major implementation risk is that of poor performance by personnel Shows how to proactively incorporate prevention into planning in order to prevent risks as well as how to mitigate them when they occur

Strategic Mergers in Higher Education

Ricardo Azziz, Guilbert C. Hentschke, Lloyd A. Jacobs, Bonita C. Jacobs, 2019-10-29 How proactive mergers can stabilize and enhance colleges and universities and ensure their future With the pool of high school graduates decreasing national and global competition increasing and the need to invest in new technologies and approaches growing many universities and small colleges alike are struggling not just to thrive but to survive In this challenging environment mergers and consolidations are often viewed as options of last resort Strategic Mergers in Higher Education however argues that college and university mergers are a legitimate and proactive strategic option to help ensure success maximize quality and service and yield the best return for faculty and students In this thoughtful book Ricardo Azziz and his coauthors including higher education leaders who have led successful consolidations address the many questions surrounding institutional mergers When they ask and why should a merger be considered How can leaders deal effectively with the many challenges and opposition that a merger will inevitably face What are the predictors of merger failure and success And how do we successfully address the postmerger cultural divide This thorough text demonstrates how mergers can dramatically accelerate the goals of postsecondary institutions The book is informed by an extensive review of published reports interviews with over thirty higher education leaders individual case studies and the experiences of the authors themselves Addressing numerous critical questions this practical guide is aimed at higher education leaders and their boards the campus leaders charged with executing transformative mergers and any policy makers interested in change management or the future of higher education Operations Research for Unmanned Systems Jeffrey R. Larson, 2008 As the market leading textbook on the subject Project Management The Managerial Process 4e is distinguished by its balanced treatment of both the technical and behavioral issues in project management as well as by its coverage of a broad range of industries to which project management principles can be applied It focuses on how project management is integral to the organization as a whole The 4th edition reflects the latest changes found in the practice Other texts discuss the topics covered in this text but they do not view oversight as the project manager's operating environment as does Gray Larson Project Management wMSProject 2007 CD and Student CD Erik Larson, Clifford Gray, 2010-04-08 As the market leading textbook on the subject Project Management The Managerial Process 5e is distinguished by its balanced treatment of both the technical and behavioral issues in project management as well as by its coverage of a broad range of industries to which project management principles can be applied It focuses on how project management is integral to the organization as a whole The 5th edition reflects the latest changes found in the practice Other texts discuss the topics covered in this text but they do not view oversight as the project manager's operating environment as does Larson Gray. Resumes of managers will soon be primarily a description of participation in and contributions to projects.

Project Management 5th Edition with Project Management 8th Edition and Ffmba Project Management 1st Edition Set Jack R. Meredith, 2004 The book is primarily intended for use as a college textbook for teaching project management at the advanced undergraduate or master's level. The text is appropriate for classes on the management of service product engineering projects as well as information systems IS. Thus we have included some coverage of material concerning information systems and how IS projects differ from and are similar to regular business projects. The authors draw upon their personal experiences working with project managers and on the experience of friends and colleagues who have spent much of their working lives serving as project managers in the real world. Thus in contrast to the books that are about project management this book teaches students how to do project management. Project Management A Managerial Approach 5E addresses project management from a management perspective rather than a cookbook special area treatise or collection of loosely associated articles. It addresses the basic nature of managing all types of projects public business engineering information systems and so on as well as specific techniques and insights required to carry out this unique way of getting things done. It deals with the problems of selecting projects initiating them and operating and controlling them. It discusses the demands made on the project manager and the nature of the manager's interaction with the rest of the parent organization. It covers the difficult problems associated with conducting a project using people and organizations that represent different cultures and may be separated by considerable distances. It even covers the issues arising when the decision is made to terminate a project.

Project Management: The Managerial Process with MS Project Erik W. Larson, Clifford F.
