Basic Housing Inspection United States. Environmental Sanitation Program, 1968 Life Transitions in America Francesco Duina, 2014-02-12 We celebrate talk about and worry a great deal about transitions in life Going to college having a first child losing a job and retiring constitute just a few of the pivotal moments in the lives of many Sociologists and psychologists have devoted considerable attention to life transitions Yet we know very little about whether there exists a common thread to our understandings of life transitions in general How do journalists leading politicians sport icons bestselling authors government agencies Hallmark cards popular TV shows and other voices of popular culture talk about transitions in life Do these voices provide a coherent picture of how we make sense of life transitions In this book Francesco Duina shows how the dominant American discourse articulates two basic approaches to transitions in life The first approach depicts transitions as exciting individualistic opportunities for new beginnings the past is cast aside the future is wide open and the self has the opportunity to recreate itself anew The second paints transitions as having to do with continuity our connections to others and the life cycle with an emphasis on acceptance and adaptation Though contrasting the two approaches ultimately complement each other Their analysis reveals a great deal about American culture and society and will be of great interest to students of the life course and the sociology of culture

Dream House Charlotte Nekola, 1993 In the tradition of Jill Kerr Conway's The Road from Coorain and Tobias Wolff's This Boy's Life this girl's life of the 1950s is a deeply moving family memoir Nekola writes in eloquent translucent prose about a time when it was important to crease your khakis shine the fins on your car and plant colorful flowers in front of your suburban home But her story contradicts this vision of families as well kept as their lawns Nekola's is a woman's take on an era when men were men and women stayed close to home Dad is in love with travel and when not away on business trips leaves home through his nightly cocktails Mom collects recipes having forsaken a career as a teacher She dreams of writing children's books but can't find a free moment to transfer the stories from her mind to paper While the children glimpse the magic of childhood getting up in the middle of the night to see an eclipse finding possums in the backyard they feel the disquieting reverberations of loss and longing This family memoir looks at what might have been lost in the struggle to move up It explores the cost of what was left unsaid by the silent generation and what the cost was for their children from becoming pregnant and marrying young to dropping out and becoming hippies Nekola speaks compassionately of her family torn apart by alcoholism early death and homelessness Through writing through caring she charts a path for others to rethink their lives and the lives of their families
