society have inevitably impacted the dynamics and relationships within the home from being personal and private to that of multiple work relationships domestic work care for older people or supporting people with special needs Whilst the home is a concept universally experienced permeating every aspect of our lives it remains an entity whose influence on health and wellbeing is poorly understood This book brings together 17 different contributions from scholars researchers and practitioners from different disciplinary and professional backgrounds including three feature articles by leading figures such as Lord Best and Baroness Hollins The chapters are organised within three parts that look at the triangle of people work care in the home At a time when homes are increasingly becoming local hubs for care and wellbeing this volume is a critical and useful addition to current literature in the social sciences humanities economics culture care and wellbeing in the domestic sphere
