ethical development in light of ego psychology object relations theory Lacanian theory and other major trends in psychoanalysis It analyses Erikson's famous portraits of Luther Gandhi and Jesus and his own ambiguous religious identity in the context of his anguished childhood and adolescence and his repeated emphasis on the need for strong intergenerational bonds to insure mental health throughout the life cycle Given Erikson's persistent efforts to harmonize psychoanalysis with history and the human sciences it interprets his invention of psychohistory as a pseudo schism which enabled Erikson to throw off the stifling constraints of Freudian orthodoxy disclosing the personal and intellectual tensions that prevailed between him and many leaders of the International Psychoanalytic Association Finally it demonstrates the enduring relevance of Erikson's unique perspective on human development to our increasingly screen saturated drug addled postmodern or posthuman culture and the ways in which his posthumous neglect foreshadows the possible death of psychoanalysis in North America
