Taking a Closer Look
Structuring a Paragraph

An article like this is often written to persuade you to do something. It is often written in a simple, direct style.

Here are some paragraphs from a text. Try to identify the main point of each paragraph.

- In paragraph 1, there is an opening sentence: 'The first thing that happened was...'

- In paragraph 2, the first sentence is being stated; followed by an example: 'For example, the first thing that happened was...'

- In paragraph 3, the first sentence is a topic sentence – 'The first thing that happened was...' – which is developed by the rest of the paragraph.

Paragraph 4 gives a description of the first thing that happened. The description is written in a simple, direct style. The paragraph is written in a simple, direct style. The paragraph is written in a simple, direct style. The paragraph is written in a simple, direct style.

- Linking words and phrases are used to link the paragraphs together. The linking words and phrases are used to link the paragraphs together.
