The Hype Machine Sinan Aral, 2021-09-14 A landmark insider's tour of how social media affects our decision making and shapes our world in ways both useful and dangerous with critical insights into the social media trends of the 2020 election and beyond The book might be described as prophetic At least two of Aral's three predictions have come to fruition New York NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY WIRED LONGLISTED FOR THE PORCHLIGHT BUSINESS BOOK AWARD Social media connected the world and gave rise to fake news and increasing polarization It is paramount MIT professor Sinan Aral says that we recognize the outsize effect social media has on us on our politics our economy and even our personal health in order to steer today's social technology toward its great promise while avoiding the ways it can pull us apart Drawing on decades of his own research and business experience Aral goes under the hood of the most powerful social networks to tackle the critical question of just how much social media actually shapes our choices for better or worse He shows how the tech behind social media offers the same set of behavior influencing levers to everyone who hopes to change the way we think and act from Russian hackers to brand marketers which is why its consequences affect everything from elections to business dating to health Along the way he covers a wide array of topics including how network effects fuel Twitter's and Facebook's massive growth the neuroscience of how social media affects our brains the real consequences of fake news the power of social ratings and the impact of social media on our kids In mapping out strategies for being more thoughtful consumers of social media The Hype Machine offers the definitive guide to understanding and harnessing for good the technology that has redefined our world overnight

Influencers, Online Alliances and Reconciliation in Southeast Europe Ivana Stepanovic, 2024-12-09 This book explores the transformative role of social media in fostering reconciliation in the former Yugoslavia a region still grappling with unresolved conflicts and ethnic divides Focusing on platforms like YouTube and TikTok it highlights how Balkan influencers blend personal storytelling with commercial outreach to promote interethnic understanding The study employs digital ethnography and narrative analysis to reveal the intricate dynamics between human actors and algorithms uncovering how social media facilitate grassroots reconciliation initiatives The author critiques traditional reconciliation efforts driven by political elites and emphasises the potential of bottom up approaches enabled by social media It presents the concept of algorithmic reconciliation where social media algorithms inadvertently foster interethnic collaborations and create transnational online communities By examining the economic and cultural practices of influencers the book illustrates how digital platforms can serve as modern arenas for peacebuilding This book is primarily aimed at undergraduates and postgraduates in social history digital media studies and peace studies but will also be relevant to academics policymakers and anyone interested in the intersection of technology and social change

Family Life Education Stephen F. Duncan, H. Wallace Goddard, 2016-04-20 A practical how to guide to developing implementing evaluating and sustaining effective family life education programs Drawing on the best scholarship and their own years of professional experience the authors of this thoroughly updated Third Edition begin by discussing the foundations of family life education and encourage readers to develop their own outreach philosophies The book then helps readers learn principles and methods for reaching out to the public and how to form and use community collaborations and use principles of social marketing to promote programs
