Audience Genre Expectations in the Age of Digital Media Leo W. Jeffres, David J. Atkin, Kimberly A. Neuendorf, 2022-12-05 This volume bridges the divide between film and media studies scholarship by exploring audience expectations of film and TV genre in the age of digital streaming using qualitative thematic and quantitative data driven analyses Through four ground breaking surveys of audience members and content creators the authors have empirically determined what audiences expect of various genres the extent to which these definitions match those of scholars and critics and the overall variation and complexity of audience expectations in the age of media abundance They also examine audience habits and preferences drawing from both theory and original empirical analyses with a view toward the implications for the moving image in a rapidly changing media environment The book draws from the data to develop a number of new concepts including genre repertoire genre hybridity audience interest maximization and variety seeking and a new stage of genre development genre bending It is an ideal resource for students and scholars interested in the symbiotic relationship between audiences and the moving image products they consume as well as the way the current digital media environment has impacted our understanding of film and TV genres Black American Literature Forum ,1983 Listener and BBC Television Review ,1988-05 Journal of the American Asiatic Association ,1926 Communication for Social Change Anthology Alfonso Gumucio Dagron, Thomas Tufte, 2006 Contains nearly 200 readings published between 1927 and 2005 in English or translated from other languages on the historical roots and pioneering thinking regarding communication for social change Covers a variety of topics including the radio tv and other mass communication information and communication technology the digital gap the formation of an information society national information policies participatory decision making communication of development pedagogy and entertainment education HIV AIDS communication for prevention etc Americas remixed. Seventies British Cinema provides a comprehensive re evaluation of British film in the 1970s The decade has long been written off in critical discussions as a doldrums period in British cinema perhaps because the industry facing near economic collapse turned to unacceptable low culture genres such as sexploitation comedies or extreme horror The contributors to this new collection argue that 1970s cinema is ripe for reappraisal giving serious critical attention to populist genre films they also consider the development of a British art cinema in the work of Derek Jarman and Peter Greenaway and the beginnings of an independent sector fostered by the BFI Production Board and producers like Don Boyd A host of highly individual directors managed to produce interesting and cinematically innovative work against the odds from Nicolas Roeg to Ken Russell to Mike Hodges As well as providing a historical and cinematic context for understanding Seventies cinema the volume also features chapters addressing Hammer horror the Carry On films Bond films of the Roger Moore period Jubilee and other films that responded to Punk rock heritage cinema and case studies of key seventies films such as The Wicker Man and Straw Dogs In all the book provides the final missing piece in the rediscovery of British cinema s complex and protean history Contributors Ruth Barton James Chapman Ian Conrich Wheeler Winston Dixon Christophe Dupin Steve Gerrard Sheldon Hall I Q Hunter James Leggott Claire Monk Paul Newland Dan North Robert Shail Justin Smith and Sarah Street
