The Generation Myth Bobby Duffy, 2021-11-09 Millennials Baby Boomers Gen Z we like to define people by when they were born but an acclaimed social researcher explains why we shouldn't Boomers are narcissists Millennials are spoiled Gen Zers are lazy We assume people born around the same time have basically the same values It makes for good headlines but is it true Bobby Duffy has spent years studying generational distinctions In The Generation Myth he argues that our generational identities are not fixed but fluid reforming throughout our lives Based on an analysis of what over three million people really think about homeownership sex well being and more Duffy offers a new model for understanding how generations form how they shape societies and why generational differences aren't as sharp as we think The Generation Myth is a vital rejoinder to alarmist worries about generational warfare and social decline The kids are all right it turns out Their parents are too

Critical Storytelling in Millennial Times, 2019-02-11 Critical stories are more than just anecdotes or tales They are narratives that raconter or recount the author's own experiences situating them in broader cultural contexts Just as the autoethnographer situates the self in relation to the others of which the self is both a part and from which it is distinct the critical storyteller situates his or her story of conflict in relation to the broader reality from which the conflict arises The key is the reality that is being related and the perspective from which it is being shared In Critical Storytelling in Millennial Times marginalized excluded and oppressed people share insights from their liminality and help readers learn from their perspectives and experiences Examples of stories in this volume range from undergraduate perspectives on financial aid for college students to narratives on first hand police brutality to heartbreaking tales about addiction bullying and the child sex trade in Cambodia Undergraduate authors relate their stories and pose important questions to the reader about inciting change for the future Follow along in their journeys and learn what you can do to make a change in your own reality Contributors are Ben Brawner Dwight Brown Bryce Cherry Kaytlin Jacoby Jimmy Kruse Dean Larrick Bric Martin Kara Niles Claire Parrish Grace Piper Claire Prendergast Alexsenia Ralat Alec Reyes Stephanie Simon S H Suits Katy Swift Morgan Vogels and Brittany Walsh

Boom Craig Hall, Linden Gross, 2019-05-14 For decades the United States has been experiencing a shocking decline in the number of new business startups and it has gotten worse since the Great Recession While new business formation in Silicon Valley New York and Boston is booming entrepreneurship in most of the country particularly rural regions is declining Things are even worse for women and people of color This is of paramount importance to the United States because startups account for all new net job growth champion innovation and strengthen our middle class From the perspective of an entrepreneur with more than fifty years of experience in diverse industries from software to real estate to winemaking author Craig Hall provides his expert evaluation on the challenges facing entrepreneurs today After careful analysis defining the current environment for startups Hall optimistically concludes with specific strategies for go getters to successfully bridge the opportunity gap We can and must reverse these trends in order to level the playing field for entrepreneurs to safeguard the future of the American Dream
