Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives Magda Nico, Ana Caetano, 2021-05-12 Structure and Agency in Young People's Lives brings together different takes on the possible combinations of agency and structure in the life course thus rejecting the notion that young individuals are the single masters of their lives but also the view that their social destinies are completely out of their hands How did I get here This is a question young people have always asked themselves and is often asked by youth researchers There is no easy and single answer The lives that are told on one hand and their interpretation on the other may have the underlying idea of own doing or the idea of social determinism or more accurately and frequently a combination of the two This collection constitutes a comprehensive map on how to make sense of youth's biographies and trajectories it questions and reshapes the discussion on the role and responsibility of youth studies in the understanding of how people juggle opportunities and constraints and contributes to escaping what Furlong and Cartmel identified as the epistemological fallacy of late modernity in which young people find themselves responsible for collective failures or inevitabilities It can thus interest students researchers and professors youth workers and all of those who work for and with young people *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
