New Insights into the Theory of Giffen Goods Wim Heijman, Pierre Mouche, 2011-10-12 One might expect that after their identification in the 19th century all aspects of Giffen goods would have been studied by now This appears not to be the case This book contains the latest insights into the theory of Giffen goods In the past surprisingly few goods could be categorized as Giffen This may be because of a lack of understanding of the character of these goods Therefore the theories explained in this book may also produce a solid basis for further empirical research in the field Experts throughout the world have contributed to this book which predominantly pursues a mathematically rigorous approach It may be used by researchers in the field of fundamental economics and in graduate level courses in advanced microeconomics

Advanced Microeconomic Theory Geoffrey Alexander Jehle, Philip J. Reny, 2001 Devoted to modern consumer and producer theories Examines the behavior of economic agents when they come together on market Provides strategic behavior

Lecture Notes in Microeconomic Theory Ariel Rubinstein, 2012-03-04 Ariel Rubinstein's well known lecture notes on microeconomics now fully revised and expanded This book presents Ariel Rubinstein's lecture notes for the first part of his well known graduate course in microeconomics Developed during the fifteen years that Rubinstein taught the course at Tel Aviv University Princeton University and New York University these notes provide a critical assessment of models of rational economic agents and are an invaluable supplement to any primary textbook in microeconomic theory In this fully revised and expanded second edition Rubinstein retains the striking originality and deep simplicity that characterize his famously engaging style of teaching He presents these lecture notes with a precision that gets to the core of the material and he places special emphasis on the interpretation of key concepts Rubinstein brings this concise book thoroughly up to date covering topics like modern choice theory and including dozens of original new problems Written by one of the world's most respected and provocative economic theorists this second edition of Lecture Notes in Microeconomic Theory is essential reading for students teachers and research economists Fully revised expanded and updated Retains the engaging style and method of Rubinstein's well known lectures Covers topics like modern choice theory Features numerous original new problems including 21 new review problems Solutions manual available only to teachers can be found at <http://gametheory.tau.ac.il/microTheory> The Internet, Development, Human Rights and the Law in Africa Danwood Chirwa, Caroline Ncube, 2023-03-17 This book tracks and critiques the impact of the internet in Africa It explores the legal policy implications of and legal responses to the internet in matters straddling human rights development trade criminal law intellectual property and social justice from the perspective of several African countries and the region Well known and emerging African scholars consider whether access to the internet is a human right the implications on the right to privacy e commerce cybercrime the opportunities and dangers of admitting electronic evidence the balancing of freedom of expression with the protection of intellectual property and how different African legal systems address this tension This book will be an invaluable resource for a wide range of stakeholders including researchers scholars and postgraduate students policymakers and legislators lawyers and judicial officers crime fighting agencies national human rights institutions civil society organisations international and regional organisations and human rights monitoring bodies
