Islamic-Based Educational Leadership, Administration and Management Khalid Arar, Rania Sawalhi, Amaarah DeCuir, Tasneem Amatullah, 2023-02-10 Offering a vital critical contribution to discussions on current perspectives practices and assumptions on Islamic education this book explores the topic through a wide range of diverse perspectives and experiences This volume challenges current assumptions around what is known as Islamic education and examines issues around educational leadership based on Islamic principles to confront xenophobia and Islamophobia in educational systems policies and practices Arguing for a new term to enter the discourse Islamic based educational leadership chapters approach the issue through critical reflexivity and diverse perspectives addressing issues such as the higher education of immigrant students around the globe and the rising tensions in Muslim and non Muslim populations Exploring topics ranging from the leverage of leadership to religious education this text brings together a wide range of case studies experiences and examinations to shed light to the different approaches of Islamic based educational leadership administration and management This book will support researchers doctoral students and scholars involved with multicultural education school leadership and management studies and education policy and politics more widely to explore new theories and practices that pave the way for future educational systems to meet faith based demand in the school choice era Islamic Operations

Management Rafikul Islam, Suhaiza Zailani, Selim Ahmed, 2024-04-16 Managing operations is an integral part of all business and comprises a number of components including quality management production planning supply chain management logistics and inventory control The effective management of operations plays a defining role in enhancing business efficiency and is a lynchpin for success This book explores how Islamic principles and tools can be applied to improve operations management across industries While Islamic banking and finance are established disciplines there is yet little evidence of how exploring operations management from an Islamic lens can improve efficiency Bringing together leading scholars across subdisciplines the Editors fill the long standing gap and address the rising demand for halal products and services by providing a unique perspective to define and enhance an important growing field This book will be a useful reference for those who wish to understand all aspects of Islamic business operations and halal logistics The book will be helpful to academics researchers and upper level students in particular to those who are looking to further their research on how Islamic principles can be applied to business operations ICMLG2015-The 3rd International Conference on

Management, Leadership and Governance Coral Ingley and James Lockhart, 2015-03-12 The conference committee encourages contributions on this wide range of topics through the use of a variety of rigorous approaches including theoretical and empirical papers employing qualitative quantitative and critical methods Action based research case studies and work in progress posters are enthusiastically welcomed PhD research proposals for roundtable discussions practitioner contributions and product demonstrations based on the conference themes are also invited Disruptive Technologies

And Muslim Societies: From Ai And Education To Food And Fintech Shahid Jameel, David C Clary, 2025-03-07 This edited volume brings together leading experts to explore the impact of disruptive technologies across a spectrum of Islamic countries and Muslim societies. Spanning artificial intelligence, science and technology, health and education, food systems and fintech, the seventeen chapters of this collection offer a diverse array of perspectives. Contributors to this volume from across the world, including Islamic countries such as Malaysia, Morocco, Pakistan, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, and Türkiye, provide in-depth analyses revealing how disruptive technologies are transforming Muslim societies and the subtle nuances shaping their impact. Together, the chapters show that these technologies tend to drive substantial change in Muslim societies, but the nature and extent of these shifts vary, sometimes mirroring developments in the West but often diverging due to distinct cultural and ethical contexts. An essential resource for scholars, policymakers, and practitioners, this book offers valuable insights into the evolving technological landscape of the Islamic World. Waqf in Islamic Economics and Finance

Muhammad Ayub, Khurram Khan, Muhammad Ismail, 2024-11-19 Waqf is emerging globally as a distinctive institution serving as a vital bridge between societal and economic needs and resource allocation. Waqfs, functioning in some parts of the world as a variety of assets such as cash, stocks, securities, intellectual property rights, and other financial instruments, by individual, institutional, and corporate waqfs are paving the way for financial and social inclusion. This book explains how the system of waqf leads to welfare in society by facilitating financial and social intermediation. It describes waqf in accessible terms, focusing on how it helps people, communities, and nations, and how it can help make societies equitable, peaceful, efficient, and more prosperous. It comprises eight key themes, including a brief overview of the historical role of waqf in various periods in Muslim societies, socioeconomic sectors, the evolutionary aspects of waqf as an institution, the role of waqf in promoting entrepreneurship, the role of waqf system in an economy by facilitating financial and social intermediation, potential options for using waqf as financial intermediation, an overview of the management and regulation of waqf entities, the organizational and legal framework for the institution of waqf, and key findings and recommendations for realizing the capacity of waqf in the pursuit of socioeconomic welfare. Specifically, the book takes Pakistan as a case study. This research-oriented book is tailored to readers interested in understanding the fundamental concepts of Islamic finance and social welfare without requiring a background in the discipline. It caters to academics, researchers, policymakers, and those keen on exploring the transformative potential of waqf to achieve societal welfare and shared economic growth. Emerging Issues in Islamic

Finance: Law and Practice in Malaysia Umar A. Oseni, M. Kabir Hassan, Rusni Hassan, 2019-08-26 Through a thorough analysis of emerging legal and regulatory issues in Islamic finance, law, and practice in Malaysia, this exciting new study covers issues such as blockchain technology, anti-money laundering, and FinTech in Islamic finance. Shariah Governance in Islamic Banking Institutions Shafiullah Jan, Muhammad Ismail, 2023-07-04 Shariah governance assumes the primary instrument through which Islamic Banking Institutions (IBIs) ensure the Islamicity of their products, services, operations, and internal environments It is considered to be one the fundamental elements that differentiates IBIs from their traditional counterparts Shariah Governance in Islamic Banking Institutions provides a critical overview of the key aspects pertaining to Shariah governance within Islamic financial institutions and presents a detailed analysis of its conceptual background The authors have identified the unique issues that have emerged due to the integration of Shariah namely the involvement of the Shariah supervisory board SSB in the corporate governance arrangements of Islamic banks These issues relate to disclosure transparency independency consistency confidentiality competency and reputation The book details the doctrines of Shariah pronouncements in Islamic banks the importance of having a central advisory board at a regulatory level in the standardization of Islamic banking practices as well as the competence required for Shariah supervisory board members It provides a critical analysis of the Shariah governance framework in Pakistan and introduces the authors vision of an ideal Shariah governance framework Furthermore the chapters offer guidance in promoting effective policies for improving Shariah governance This is one of the core challenges facing Islamic banks namely to ensure compliance with faith and provide legitimacy to the business of IBIs and as such the book will appeal to both the research and professional communities
