This is a concern that is shared by many people in the library community and it is one that needs to be addressed. One way to address this concern is to ensure that the library remains a place where people can go to get information. This can be done by providing a wide range of services and resources that are not available elsewhere. For example, the library can provide a place where people can go to get help with their research or to borrow books and other materials. It can also provide a place where people can go to get information about local events and activities. By providing these services and resources, the library can ensure that it remains a place where people can go to get information.
