Basic Management Accounting for the Hospitality Industry Michael Chibili, 2019-11-26 Basic Management Accounting for the Hospitality Industry uses a step by step approach to enable students to independently master the field This second edition contains many new themes and developments including the essence of the International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS integration of the changes caused by the evolution of the Uniform System of Accounts for the Lodging Industry USALI the extension of price elasticity of demand and addition of income and cross elasticities the addition of break even time BET as an additional method of analysing capital investments Up to date and comprehensive coverage this textbook is essential reading for hospitality management students Additional study and teaching materials can be found on www.hospitalitymanagement.noordhoff.nl

Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson, Ralph W. Adler, 2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal
