It appeared to be supported by evidence of the correspondence with a letter of 1911. Later, we increasingly suspect the correspondence is the result of an act of misanthropy, but we cannot say. What is clear is that the correspondence is a product of a man who is not a man of letters, and who is not a man of letters. The correspondence is a product of a man who is not a man of letters, and who is not a man of letters. The correspondence is a product of a man who is not a man of letters, and who is not a man of letters.
