Middlebrow Feminism in Classic British Detective Fiction M. Schaub, 2013-02-21 This is a feminist study of a recurring character type in classic British detective fiction by women a woman who behaves like a Victorian gentleman Exploring this character type leads to a new evaluation of the politics of classic detective fiction and the middlebrow novel as a whole

Engendering an avant-garde Leah Modigliani, 2018-04-06 Engendering an avant garde is the first book to comprehensively examine the origins of Vancouver photo conceptualism in its regional context between 1968 and 1990 Employing discourse analysis of texts written by and about artists feminist critique and settler colonial theory the book discusses the historical transition from artists creation of defeatured landscapes between 1968-71 to their cinematographic photographs of the late 1970s and the backlash against such work by other artists in the late 1980s It is the first study to provide a structural account for why the group remains all male It accomplishes this by demonstrating that the importation of a European discourse of avant garde activity which assumed masculine social privilege and public activity effectively excluded women artists from membership

Huk,2003-04-29 First anthology to examine the national borders of postmodern poetry Empathetic Memorials Mark Callaghan,2020-11-12 This book is a study of the Berlin Holocaust Memorial Competitions of the 1990s with a focus on designs that kindle empathetic responses Through analysis of provocative designs the book engages with issues of empathy secondary witnessing and depictions of concentration camp iconography It explores the relationship between empathy and cultural memory when representations of suffering are notably absent The book submits that one design represents the idea of an uncanny memorial and also pays attention to viewer co authorship in counter monuments Analysis of counter monuments also include their creative engagement with German history and their determination to defy fascist aesthetics As the winning design for The Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe is abstract with an information centre there is an exploration of the memorial museum Callaghan asks whether this configuration is intended to compensate for the abstract memorial s ambiguity or to complement the design s visceral potential Other debates explored concern political memory national memory and the controversy of dedicating the memorial exclusively to murdered Jews Vanguardia and Postmodern Fiction Adrian Taylor Kane,2006 Loading the Silence: Australian Sound Art in the Post-Digital Age Linda Ioanna Kouvaras,2016-05-13 The experimentalist phenomenon of noise as constituting art in much twentieth century music paradoxically reached its zenith in Cage s silent piece 4 33 But much post 1970s musical endeavour with an experimentalist telos collectively known as sound art has displayed a postmodern need to load modernism s degree zero After contextualizing experimentalism from its inception in the early twentieth century Dr Linda Kouvaras s Loading the Silence Australian Sound Art in the Post Digital Age explores the ways in which selected sound art works demonstrate creatively how sound is embedded within local national gendered and historical environments Taking Australian music as its primary but not sole focus the book not only covers discussions of technological advancement but also engages with aesthetic standpoints through numerous interviews theoretical developments analysis and cultural milieux for a contemporary Australian and wider postmodern context Developing new methodologies for synergies between musicology and cultural studies the book uncovers a new post postmodern aesthetic trajectory which Kouvaras locates as developing over the past two decades the altermodern Australian sound art is here put firmly on the map of international debates about contemporary music providing a standard reference and valuable resource for practitioners in the artform music critics scholars and educators Sex and Sexuality in a Feminist World Karen A. Ritzenhoff,Katherine A. Hermes,2009 Sex and sexuality are topics that have defined feminism since its inception What has changed is that there is now a generation of feminists and scholars who are comfortable not only to write in their own disciplines but who incorporate feminist ideas in their research This book assembles a variety of essays most of which were written especially for this collection that negotiate sex and sexuality in historical contexts as well as in contemporary times There is a common ground of history and popular culture among the articles While different theories of feminism operate in these essays feminist lenses have allowed the reevaluation of familiar topics from early religious practices to medieval literature to current films and advertising The authors represented in this collection range from established feminist and gender scholars to those who employ feminist theoretical frameworks in their respective disciplines Annihilated Time Jeff Derksen, 2009 Essays that explore the ways in which poetry visual art and critical practices encounter the imperialist agenda of globalization Memorials in Berlin and Buenos Aires Brigitte Sion, 2014-12-01 The Memorial to the Murdered Jews in Berlin inaugurated in 2005 and the Monument to the Victims of State Terrorism within the Memory Park Parque de la Memoria in Buenos Aires partially unveiled in 2007 have been controversial from start to finish While these sites differ in many respects Germany and Argentina share a history of dictatorial regimes that murdered civilians on a massive scale The Nazis implemented the genocide of millions of Jews and other minorities during World War II In Argentina the junta led state repression was responsible for the disappearance and subsequent murder of thousands of civilians between 1976 and 1983 Decades later new governments in Germany and Argentina acknowledged the responsibility of their respective states for these mass murders by memorializing the victims with a national monument in the capital city for the first time This study of two memorials develops a model and method for analyzing the memorialization of recent tragedies that share several basic characteristics the state creates a self indicting national memorial to the victims of state sponsored mass murder in the absence of their bodies Analyzed as sites of conflicting performances and as performances themselves these memorials illuminate the ways in which people engage with them and how an architecture of absence triggers embodied memory through somatic experience While death tourism and architourism are a key to their success in attracting visitors they also pose a threat to their commemorative role Besides assessing the success and failure of these memorials Sion explores the ways in which these sites are paradigmatic and offers a model for analyzing a transnational circuit of commemorative practices On the "Utopian Scrap-heap" James McNaughton, 2006 Postmodern Studies , 1995 Differences , 1989 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library.
