The Electronic Chart Horst Hecht,2006 Maritime Security and MET Detlef Nielsen,2005 This volume collects the papers presented at the 2005 Annual General Assembly and Conference of the International Association of Maritime Universities IAMU which was held in Malmo Sweden from 24 to 26 October 2005 and hosted by the World Maritime University Section 1 presents interim and final reports on several research projects funded by IAMU Section 2 presents a broad range of academic papers on the theme of maritime Security and MET These range from the challenges faced by MET institutions worldwide in incorporating the new topic of maritime security into their syllabi to the economic costs of the new maritime security regime to the shipping industry and to ports Other topics are also covered including the technical means of monitoring the movements of ships and the social implications for seafarers on board ships Section 3 includes papers on a variety of current MET issues such as bridge resource management quality management in MET careers at sea and ship handling and marine engineering simulators

International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Central Library and Documentation Bureau,1997 Maritime Work Law Fundamentals: Responsible Shipowners, Reliable Seafarers Iliana Christodoulou-Varotsi,Dmitry A. Pentsov,2007-10-18 The importance of international maritime labour law both as a component of ternational maritime law and in socio political and economic terms has been recognised by the IMO International Maritime Law Institute for a number of years Indeed the Institute has annually organised a course on maritime labour law with the participation of inter alia the International Maritime Organization the ternational Labour Organization the International Transport Workers Federation and the German Shipowners Association It was therefore a great pleasure when the authors invited me to introduce their forthcoming monograph on Maritime Work Law Fundamentals Responsible S powners Reliable Seafarers As the title suggests a fundamental challenge of this branch of international maritime law is to achieve a balance between the interests of the two main stakeholders Institutionally the effort to achieve this balance dates back a number of decades with its genesis mainly found in the work of the International Labour Organization It has to be said that whilst this effort achieved great progress it has led to a haphazard plethora of legal instruments ceremonies at the close of the sixteenth century we find that distinguished rubrician in December 1574 discussing at some length the ritual to be used in the unwalling of the Holy Door at the forthcoming celebration of the Jubilee He tells us that as the time for the ceremony drew near he went to his Holiness Pope Gregory XIII and submitted to him a memorandum concerning the preparations to be made and the things to be then observed It appears however that his colleague in the office of master of ceremonies also went to the Pope with a similar programme which he declared to be that which had been followed by Julius III in the year 1550 It differed very little from mine says Mucanzio except in the versicles and responses Those which I had set down were taken from an ancient roll a quodam rotulo antiquo used in the time of Clement VII and of these versicles there was probably no accurate copy forthcoming in 1550 on account of the pillage and disasters to which the city had been subjected he refers presumably to the sack of Rome in 1527 hence they had been somewhat altered My opinion was that out of the two sets which we had before us a third more appropriate than either might have been drawn up but when the matter was proposed in the Congregation of Cardinals appointed for the revision of ceremonies they decided that as regards the versicles 1The copy here quoted is contained in MS Addit 26811 at the British Museum and prayers the precedent of Julius III s time should be adhered to in every particular The fact is adds Mucanzio we have nothing prescribed about this matter in the Book of Ceremonies 1 and on this ac

The Law of Shipbuilding Contracts Simon Curtis, 2014-04-03

This is the leading text on shipbuilding and marine construction already widely used on a global basis by shipowners shipbuilders and their commercial and legal advisers It is now ten years since the last edition and much has changed in the world of shipbuilding since then particularly in the period since 2008 which has seen numerous attempts by owners to renegotiate the prices and or delivery dates of tonnage and an enormous increase in the level of vessel rejection and cancellation disputes The Law of Shipbuilding Contracts examines the principles of English contract law as these apply to shipbuilding This edition comments in detail upon the Shipbuilders Association of Japan Form but now contrasts this with the NEWBUILDCON from BIMCO in 2007 and the China Maritime Arbitration Commission Forms from 2011 where these are significantly different It also includes sections dealing with agreements ancillary to the shipbuilding contract and conversion contracts Overview of book Since the last edition in 2002 China has become a major global exporter of newbuildings and new BIMCO shipbuilding contract form has been published Although retaining the original format of commentary on the Japanese SAJ standard form shipbuilding contract the new edition contrasts this with the BIMCO form and the recently published China Maritime Arbitration Commission CMAC form in order to provide a broad ranging analysis of this complex subject The book details the principles of English contract law as these apply to international shipbuilding It will as in the previous editions also include sections dealing with the guarantees and other agreements which support the shipbuilding contract and with ship conversion contracts Essential reading for Purchasers and charterers of newbuilding tonnage Shipbuilders and offshore construction yards Lawyers and insurers working in the maritime and offshore oil and gas sectors Banks and other
