Are you familiar with the most recent updates to the computer science curriculum in this state?

Interviewers may ask this question to see if you are up-to-date on the latest changes in computer science education. They want to know that you can adapt your teaching style and curriculum to meet state standards. In your answer, explain how you stay informed about these updates and what steps you take to ensure you're meeting students' needs.

Example: "I am very familiar with the most recent updates to the computer science curriculum in this state. I subscribe to several newsletters from the department of education where I keep track of any new developments or revisions to the curriculum. I also attend professional development workshops throughout the year to learn more about the newest technology and resources available for my classroom."

What are some of the most important skills that you teach your students in your computer science class?
