Congressional Record United States. Congress,1979      Never Enough Time Brian H. Spitzberg,2025-10-24 Never Enough Time discusses the directional and irreversible nature of time its relationship to information and entropy the deep time history of communication from the genesis of language to today and the extent to which we occupy time through our communication Drawing together studies from a wide variety of disciplines and topics that provide quantitative estimates of how much daily time is expended communicating and relating to others the author demonstrates that in an increasingly accelerating mediated and information overloaded ecosystem we spend most of our time both socially and occupationally engaged in various forms of communication He examines the nature of time in the context of our increasingly overloaded and mediated information and communication ecosystem the extent to which our increasing screen time displaces face to face interaction and the implications this trend has for our quality and quantity of life particularly for younger populations In addition a case is made for the importance of developing standardized measures of time made all the more feasible with digital technologies already available for quantifying behavior at population scales This book will appeal to graduate students scholars and researchers interested in time communication theory new media and media studies and communication and personal relationships      News Bulletin - American Vocational Association American Vocational Association,1928

Journal and News Bulletin of the American Vocational Association ,1929      Youth and Employment in Sub-Saharan Africa Hiroyuki Hino,Gustav Ranis,2014-06-05 It is widely acknowledged that youth unemployment is one of the most critical challenges facing countries in Sub Saharan Africa This volume brings together an eminent group of international scholars to analyse the extent and complex nature of this joblessness and offer a set of evidence based policy choices that could contribute to solving the problem in the short and long run Part I reviews the existing literature on youth unemployment and underemployment in Sub Saharan Africa from microeconomic and macroeconomic perspectives while Part II goes on to present detailed country studies of Ethiopia Ghana Kenya and South Africa These studies offer a deep understanding of the situation on the ground and consider country specific solutions Throughout the book it is argued that the standard ILO definition of unemployment is too narrow to correctly portray employment situations in Sub Saharan Africa Several alternative measures of unemployment are presented which show that joblessness is far more pervasive than commonly assumed in the literature This volume will be of interest to academics and policy makers involved in African development      Sabbath as Resilience Kenneth J. Barnes,C. Sara Lawrence Minard,2025-03-28 People everywhere are feeling the stress of modern life in ways not seen for generations Emerging from the fog of the first pandemic in one hundred years they face economic uncertainty political acrimony war and the threat of war environmental degradation and technological advances that amaze and frighten in equal measure Time and space condense as unrelenting connectedness blurs the lines between work and play fact and fiction need and desire The devices meant to improve lives dominate them in what theologian Walter Brueggemann calls the tyranny of now People are looking for accessible solutions to complex problems People need resilience but are ill equipped to find it In this book the Fellows of the Mockler Center at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offer a solution not from the well trodden psychological disciplines or the lure of New Age mysticism but in a concept as old as the Scriptures themselves the divine gift of Sabbath The authors explore in detail Jesus words Sabbath was made for humanity not humanity for the Sabbath proposing five areas values time space people and faith where a more comprehensive understanding of Sabbath can build resilience by reshaping personal and professional identities in accord with God s will and purpose
