Conflict Transformation And Peacebuilding Moving From Violence To Sustainable Peace Routledge Studies In Security And Conflict Management:

Conflict Transformation and Peacebuilding Bruce W. Dayton, Louis Kriesberg, 2009-02-11 This book fills a gap in our understanding of the forces that lead to moderation and constructive engagement in the context of violent intrastate conflicts

Louis Kriesberg: Pioneer in Peace and Constructive Conflict Resolution Studies Louis Kriesberg, 2016-07-06 On the occasion of his 90th birthday Louis Kriesberg provides an informative account of his career tracing the trajectory of his discoveries contributions and stumbles as he sought to help the advance toward a more sustainable and just peace in the world His work contributes to ideas and practices in several areas of conflict studies notably intractable conflicts and their transformation reconciliation conflict analysis and waging conflicts constructively Although neither an autobiography nor a memoir he embeds the course of his work in the context of historical events and in the evolving fields of peace studies and conflict resolution In addition he discusses the interaction of those fields with major conflicts The book includes seven previously published exemplary pieces on these and other topics a comprehensive list of his publications and several photos A discussion of Kriesberg's work and its significance is provided by George A Lopez Professor of Peace Studies University of Notre Dame

Overcoming Intractable Conflicts Miriam F. Elman,, Catherine Gerard,, Galia Golan, Louis Kriesberg, 2019-09-26 Despite considerable progress in research and practice in the constructive transformation of intractable conflicts beginning in the 1970s many terribly destructive conflicts have recently erupted New circumstances have emerged that have resulted in regressions The contributions in this book examine many of the new challenges and obstacles to the transformation of intractable conflicts It also offers an array of new and promising opportunities for constructive transformations The book brings together analyses of U S based conflicts with those from many regions of the world International intra state and local conflicts are explored along with those that have been violent and non violent The diversity in disciplines among the authors provides a wide range of theoretical approaches to explaining how a variety of intractable conflicts can be transformed Case studies of local national and transnational conflicts serve to illustrate this new landscape These analyses are complemented by conceptual discussions relating to new conflict systems actors dynamics and strategies Policy implications of findings are also presented

Reconciliation, Heritage and Social Inclusion in the Middle East and North Africa Iyad Muhsen AlDajani, Martin Leiner, 2022-10-28 This book sponsored by the Academic Alliance for Reconciliation Studies in the Middle East and North Africa AARMENA focuses on peacebuilding conflict transformation and shifts toward approaching the reconciliation process as an inter trans and multidisciplinary field The research presented in the series focuses on the Middle East and North Africa highlighting contributions by practitioners and scholars alike This volume showcases research on Heritage Reconciliation and Social Inclusion in the Middle East and North Africa It reflects various inter trans and multidisciplinary approaches applied both theoretically and practically and explores conflict transformation and transitional shifts towards peacebuilding and reconciliation in the MENA Middle East and North Africa region The content is divided into five sections the first of which examines the importance of reconciliation peacebuilding and social inclusion in contributions by experts in the field such as Martin Leiner Wolfgang Dietrich Mohammad Abu Nimer Mohmmad Alshraideh and Iyad Aldajani The second and third section explore digital humanities and the research sciences respectively while the fourth turns to practices of heritage and reconciliation The fifth section presents case studies on practices conducted by expert researchers for heritage reconciliation and social inclusion in higher education The Monopoly of Force Michael Miklaucic, Melanne A Civic, 2011-08 The mechanism of disarmament demobilization and reintegration DDR is widely acknowledged to be an essential component of successful peacekeeping peace building postconflict management and state building Security sector reform SSR has emerged as a promising though poorly understood tool for consolidating stability and establishing sovereignty after conflict While DDR enables a state to recover the monopoly or at least the preponderance of force SSR provides the opportunity for the state to establish the legitimacy of that monopoly The essays in this book reflect the diversity of experience in DDR and SSR in various contexts Despite the considerable experience acquired by the international community the critical interrelationship between DDR and SSR and the ability to use these mechanisms with consistent success remain less than optimally developed DDR and SSR are essential tools of modern statecraft but their successful use is contingent upon our understanding of both the affinities and the tensions between them These essays aim to excite further thought on how these two processes DDR and SSR can be implemented effectively and complementarily to better accomplish the shared goals of viable states and enduring peace

Turkey and the Kurdish Peace Process Arin Savran, 2022-11-03 After the fall of the Ottoman Empire following World War I the Kurds in the Middle East became the largest ethnic group in the region without a state of their own Divided between Turkey Syria Iran and Iraq the Kurds have fought for their right to exist as a distinct national group as well as for governing themselves Turkey and the Kurdish Peace Process provides a historical and conceptual account of events in order to detail the key conditions factors and events that gave rise to the PKK Kurdistan Workers Party conflict in Turkey as well as the conditions influencing the emergence management and collapse of the peace talks Drawing from conflict resolution theories this book investigates the transformation of key conflict actors and changes over time in their approach to the main conflict issues Moreover Arin Y Savran expands the concept of conflict transformation to encompass the ideological transformation of a movement as a result of a rigorous and deep intellectual epiphany on the part of the political leaders a phenomenon that is unusual and little is known about making it all the more relevant to include in future theoretical approaches in peace process studies Methodologically she rethinks conflict transformation resolution approaches to focus on shifts in beliefs and relationships that occur prior to a peace process or the start of peace negotiations when often much focus on peace processes is on the post agreement phase This book is among the first comprehensive scholarly accounts to date in the English language that analyzes the Kurdish peace process Journal of Peace Research ,2009-11 Harnessing Post-conflict Transitions Nicholas J. Armstrong, Jacqueline Chura-Beaver, 2010 This monograph addresses the challenging topic of transition in post conflict stability operations and is intended for a wide audience that includes military and civilian policymakers international development experts and scholars in academe It is a primer systematic review and comprehensive assessment of the fields of research and practice It presents and appraises the major lenses process authority transfer phasing and end state categories war to peace power societal political democratic security and economic approaches and tools under which post conflict transitions are conceived It lays the groundwork for both future research and greater collaboration among diverse international and local actors who operate in post conflict environments to develop a comprehensive definition of transition and adequate tools to address all facets of the concept It provides recommendations for future research and improved transition policy which include cross institutional political security economic and multi level local regional national studies that explore the interdependencies between simultaneous transitions underlying assumptions of current transition tools and indicators relationships between transition and institutional resilience and thresholds and tipping points between transition phases The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Monopoly of Force Melanne A. Civic, Michael Miklaucic, 2011 Disarmament Demobilization and Reintegration DDR and Security Sector Reform SSR have emerged in recent years as promising though generally poorly understood mechanisms for consolidating stability and reasserting state sovereignty after conflict Despite the considerable experience acquired by the international community the critical interrelationship between DDR and SSR and the ability to use these mechanisms with consistent success remain less than optimally developed The chapters in this book reflect a diversity of field experience and research in DDR and SSR which suggest that these are complex and interrelated systems with underlying political attributes Successful application of DDR and SSR requires the setting aside of preconceived assumptions or formulas and should be viewed flexibly to restore to the state the monopoly of force P 4 of cover Migracije iz Bosne i Hercegovine Mirza Emirhafizović, 2013

Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Omeje, 2018-10-03 Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa explores the challenges and opportunities faced by countries and societies transitioning from armed conflicts to peace in contemporary Africa It evaluates the effectiveness outcomes and failures of existing peacebuilding initiatives implemented by stakeholders and proposes new strategies and approaches to facilitate the transition The book investigates both micro and macro level conflicts in various parts of Africa as well as the efforts made to resolve them and build peace The book pays particular attention to grassroots based micro level conflicts often disregarded in peacebuilding literature which tends to focus on macro level neo liberal state reconstruction and peacebuilding efforts The book adopts an evidence based policy relevant approach to peacebuilding in Africa The various chapter contributors offer a lucid analysis and critique of some of the prevailing paradigms and strategies of peacebuilding practiced in Africa Together the authors recommend innovative strategies to mobilise and coordinate governance institutions and partnerships at all levels international regional national and local to prevent conflict escalation in volatile states and advance the rebuilding of violence affected states and communities Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa provides a much needed perspective from African scholars and will be of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners with an interest in promoting legitimate policy interventions and sustainable peace in Africa

Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding Roger Mac Ginty,2024-08-20 This updated and revised second edition of the Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding contains cutting edge analyses of contemporary attempts to reach and sustain peace The book covers the main actors and dynamics of peacebuilding as well as the main challenges that it faces with accessible chapters The volume is comprehensive covering everything from the main international institutions for peacebuilding to the links between peacebuilding and climate change or peacebuilding and trauma It is also firmly interdisciplinary with a number of chapters devoted to showcasing how different disciplines interpret peacebuilding and how they contribute to it Bringing together leading thinkers and practitioners on peacebuilding many from the Global South the handbook offers a valuable hands on perspective on how peace can be secured and sustained There is a significant emphasis on comparison and the book shows how peacebuilding is best examined from the vantage point of multiple cases The book is organised into six thematic sections Part I Architecture and Actors Part II Reading Peacebuilding Part III Issues and Approaches Part IV Violence and Security Part V Everyday Living Part VI Disciplinary Approaches This book will be essential reading for students of peacebuilding mediation and post conflict reconstruction and of great interest to students of statebuilding intervention civil wars conflict resolution war and conflict studies and IR in general Chapter 25 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Post-War Security Transitions Veronique Dudouet,Hans Giessmann,Katrin Planta,2012-01-27 This book explores the conditions under which non state armed groups

NSAGs participate in post war security and political governance The text offers a comprehensive approach to post war security transition processes based on five years of participatory research with local experts and representatives of former non state armed groups It analyses the successes and limits of peace negotiations demobilisation arms management political or security sector integration socio economic reintegration and state reform from the direct point of view of conflict stakeholders who have been central participants in ongoing and past peacebuilding processes Challenging common perceptions of ex combatants as spoilers or passive recipients of aid the various contributors examine the post war transitions of these individuals from state challengers to peacebuilding agents The book concludes on a cross country comparative analysis of the main research findings and the ways in which they may facilitate a participatory inclusive and gender sensitive peacebuilding strategy Post War Security Transitions will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding security governance war and conflict studies political violence and IR in general Routledge Companion to Peace and Conflict Studies Sean Byrne,Thomas Matyók,Imani Michelle Scott,Jessica Senehi,2019-07-24 This Companion examines contemporary challenges in Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and offers practical solutions to these problems Bringing together chapters from new and established global scholars the volume explores and critiques the foundations of Peace and Conflict Studies in an effort to advance the discipline in light of contemporary local and global actors The book examines the following eight specific components of Peace and Conflict Studies Peace and conflict studies praxis Structure agency tension as it relates to social justice nonviolence and relationship building Gender masculinity and sexuality The role of partnerships and allies in racial ethnic and religious peacebuilding Culture and identity Critical and emancipatory peacebuilding International conflict transformation and peacebuilding Global responses to conflict It argues that new critical and emancipatory peacebuilding and conflict transformation strategies are needed to address the complex cultural economic political and social conflicts of the 21st century This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peace studies conflict resolution transitional justice reconciliation studies social justice studies and international relations

Transition to Peace Ho-Won Jeong,2021-10-15 This book enhances our understanding of how societies torn by violence can be rebuilt Instabilities in those societies continue to be fuelled by political marginalization economic social inequality violent crimes and injustice Historically international response has been largely inadequate due to a failure of adaptation to local circumstances This collection focuses on how peacebuilding programmes can be more effectively carried out to create a more functional society In a nutshell this volume sheds light on local practice and experiences that can be utilized to meet unique circumstances of countries that have suffered from a destructive conflict The collection will investigate the transition to peace by highlighting the missing links between peacebuilding norms and practice political economy emotions justice and reconciliation Resolving Structural Conflicts Richard E. Rubenstein,2017-01-06 This book analyses how certain types of social systems generate violent conflict and discusses how these systems can be transformed in order to create the conditions for positive peace Resolving Structural Conflicts addresses a key issue in the field of conflict studies what to do about violent conflicts that are not the results of misunderstanding prejudice or malice but the products of a social system that generates violent conflict as part of its normal operations This question poses enormous challenges to those interested in conflict resolution since the solution to this problem involves restructuring social political and cultural systems rather than just calling in a mediator to help people arrive at an agreement This study breaks new ground in showing how local conflicts involving crime police and prisons transnational conflicts involving religious terrorism by groups like ISIS and international conflicts involving Great Power clashes are all produced in large part by elite driven exploitative or oppressive social structures It also presents new ideas about the implications of this structural turn for the practice of conflict resolution emphasizing the need for conflict resolvers to embrace a new politics and to broaden their methods far beyond traditional forms of facilitation Written by a leading scholar this book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies war and conflict studies sociology political science and international relations in general

Civil Resistance and Conflict Transformation Véronique Dudouet, 2014-09-15 This book investigates the decision making process rationale and determining factors which underlie the strategic shifts of armed movements from violent to nonviolent resistance The revival of global interest in the phenomenon of nonviolent struggle since the 2011 Arab Spring offers a welcome opportunity to revisit the potential of unarmed resistance as an alternative pathway out of armed conflicts in cases where neither military or counter insurgency nor negotiated solutions have succeeded This volume brings together academics from various disciplinary traditions and offers a wide range of case studies including South Africa Palestine and Egypt through which to view the changes from violence to nonviolence within self determination revolutionary or pro democracy struggles While current historiography focuses on armed conflicts and their termination through military means or negotiated settlements this book is a first attempt to investigate the nature and the drivers of transitions from armed strategies to unarmed methods of contentious collective action on the part of non state conflict actors The text concentrates in particular on the internal and relational factors which underpin the decision making process from a change of leadership and a pragmatic re evaluation of the goals and means of insurgency in the light of evolving inter party power dynamics to the search for new local or international allies and the cross border emulation or diffusion of new repertoires of action This book will be of interest to students of security studies peace and conflict studies political sociology and IR in general

The Politics of Peacebuilding Safal Ghimire, 2018-09-03 This book examines and compares the diverging security approaches of the UK China and India in peacebuilding settings with a specific focus on the case of Nepal Rising powers such as China and India dissent from traditional templates of peacebuilding and apply their own methods to respond to security issues This book fills a gap in the literature by examining how emerging actors China and India engage with security and development and how their approaches differ from those of a traditional actor the UK In the light of democratic peace and regional security complex theories the book interprets interview data to compare and contrast the engagement of these three actors with post war Nepal and the implications for security sector governance and peacebuilding It contends that the UK helped to peacefully manage transition but that the institutional changes were merely ceremonial China and India by contrast were more effective in advancing mutual security agendas through elite level interactions However the hardware of security for example material and infrastructure support gained more consideration than the software of security such as meritocratic governance and institution building This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding development studies Asian politics security studies and International Relations in general
