Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The French Face of Joseph Conrad Yves Hervouet,1990-11-30 A large scale account of Conrad s extensive involvement with the French literary tradition Yves Hervouet s book is a milestone in our understanding of his work It will have a major impact on Conrad scholarship and as a study of cross cultural influence it will be of interest to all students of comparative literature in the period Joseph Conrad--comparative Essays Adam Gillon,1994 This collection of essays continues Adam Gillon s comparatist approach to Joseph Conrad which he exhibited in three previous books The Eternal Solitary A Study of Joseph Conrad 1960 and 1964 Conrad and Shakespeare and Other Essays 1976 and Joseph Conrad Tawyne English Authors Series 1982 In the present collection Gillon extends his perspectives by examining the affinities between Conrad s descriptive art and painting and film Gillon presents a variety of new views and insights as he traces the connections between Conrad and such writers as Henry James and Vladimir Nabokov and compares Conradian characters Prince Roman and Peer Ivanovitch Gillon s Polish background looms large in this collection His mastery of the Polish language is apparent in the discussion of two Polish novels about Conrad s early life and in his translation of excerpts from these novels The first and last chapters offer moving glimpses of Gillon s own Polish footprints his initiation into Conrad lore and the visit to his native land after a long absence The intimacy and wry humor of these recollections are evident also in his essay about adapting Conrad to film which is illustrated with excerpts from his scripts Under Western Eyes and Dark Country his screenplay inspired by Heart of Darkness and Conradian themes A native of Poland Adam Gillon is professor emeritus of English and comparative literature at the State University of New York New Paltz He has lectured at universities in Canada Israel and Europe His numerous publications include critical studies of Conrad fiction poetry translations articles and reviews He has written award winning plays for screen stage and radio He wrote directed and produced a feature film The Bet Gillon is president of the Joseph Conrad Society of America and founder and senior editor of its newsletter Joseph Conrad Today Raymond Brebach is an associate professor of humanities at Drexel University He is a contributing editor for the Cambridge Edition of the Works of Joseph Conrad and he edits Joseph Conrad Today the newsletter of the Joseph Conrad Society of America He has written on the collaboration of Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford Conrad and Gide Russell West,Russell West-Pavlov,1996 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner Andr Gide Gide s translation of Conrad s Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection conflict between master and disciple and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity Issues of translation theory psychoanalysis and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English French and Comparative Literature
